Attack by Reds Beaten By Marines

SAIGON (AP) — A company of U.S. Marines weathered a heavy attack by two companies of North Vietnamese troops today at disputed Hill 881 North and, with Leatherneck reinforcements and air and artillery help, repulsed them.

Elsewhere, U.S. infantrymen and South Vietnamese paratroopers reported killing more than 300 Communist soldiers in two battles more than 400 miles apart. Another American unit uncovered one of the largest enemy caches of the war north of Saigon.

The U.S. Command announced that, in nearly five hours of heavy fighting, 20 Marines were killed and 45 wounded. The Marines reported they killed 40 Communists in repulsing the attack around the strategic piece of high ground in this ninth day of a campaign through hills of northwestern South Vietnam near the Laotian frontier.

A spokesman said the Marine company was in night defensive positions six miles northwest of the forward command post at Kh Sanh when Communist gunners launched a heavy mortar attack at 4:30 a.m. The barrage

Chicago Milk Strike Halted

Settlement Follows Six Hours of Talks In Mayor's Office

CHICAGO (AP) — Settlement of a combination strike-lockout by drivers and dairy operators that halted milk deliveries in the Chicago area was announced today.

The agreement to end the milk crisis was reached at 2 a.m. after six hours of negotiations in the office of Mayor Richard Daley, who had summoned union and dairy representatives in an urgent attempt to settle the dispute.

Spokesmen for each side said milk deliveries would be resumed today to homes and stores.

The new one-year agreement provides for a $5 a week across the board increase in wages and a $1 increase for pension, health and welfare benefits. Other issues, including dairy operators' proposals to reduce the work week from six to five days and home deliveries from three to two days a week remain to be worked out.

Arbitration Eyed
Spokesmen said any issues unresolved in continuing negotiations would be submitted to arbitration.

The dispute began early Monday during negotiations for a new contract. Spokesmen for the drivers walked out on the bargaining talks and struck Dean Milk Co. about 60 Chicago-area dairies retaliated by closing their doors to the drivers.

By Monday afternoon, virtually no milk was left on grocery shelves in the area. Shoppers reportedly traveled up to 40 miles to buy milk in outlying areas for their children.

Restaurant patrons were unable to order milk with their meals Tuesday.

Testify at Incorporation Hearing

Cities Deny Planning Favoritism

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — City officials Tuesday denied allegations that prejudiced state planners have favored them in dealing with proposed incorporations, as charged by town leaders.

Ed Johnson, director of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities, and Richard Steffens, Menasha city attorney, said suggestions by town leaders at an Assembly State Affairs Committee hearing that planners have refused proposed town incorporations because of a pro-city bias are unfair and untrue.

Town officials had said that a bill which would specifically allow them to incorporate their areas as cities had become the only route open to them to block annexations of choice territories by cities, because a former state planner and his chief assistant had favored cities in their dealings.

They appeared to back a bill sponsored by the towns which would allow town areas with 5,000 population and over and equalized valuations of more than $20 million to become cities.

A present law allowing some such towns to incorporate has not been effective, they claimed, because the past state planner, Walter Johnson, and his principal aide both are former city employees and favor annexation of town areas.

The league spokesmen charged that any suggestions

Report Says Total Would Be 600,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland has asked President Johnson to send another 160,000 fighting men to Vietnam to bring the total U.S. strength to 600,000, the New York Times reported from Saigon today.

Quoting informed sources, the dispatch said Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, made the request during his trip to the United States last week and urged that the reinforcements be sent "as soon as possible."

Associates said he hoped the buildup could be completed by Jan. 1, the Times said.

"Increased enemy pressure in the northern area of South Vietnam and the disappointing pace of operations in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon have apparently obliged the general to make a reassessment," Times correspondent R. W. Apple Jr. said.

Some 440,000 American troops are now in Vietnam. The last reported plans called for them to be increased to 470,000 by the end of the year.

Mercury Dips To Record 27 In Fox Cities

A frost-bitten 27 degrees Tuesday night set a record in the Fox Cities.

The reading is the coldest for May 2 in the 40-year history of official records, and there is no relief in the offing. Temperatures 12 to 16 degrees below normal, or well into the freezing range, are forecast through the weekend.

The rest of the Midwest also is shivering through the unseasonable cold wave, while the Dakotas and Montana dig out of a blizzard that took a heavy toll in unprotected livestock.

Dickinson, N. D. took the prize for the nation's lowest temperature, with a 6 degree reading Tuesday. Key West recorded 81, the highest.

Captain Blamed for Torrey Canyon Wreck

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — A Liberian investigating board says the Italian captain of the supertanker Torrey Canyon was solely responsible for the wreck that spilled 36 million gallons of oil into the sea, fouling British and French beaches and doing enormous damage to marine and bird life.

Republicans Back Johnson

Dirksen Leaves Hospital Bed To Stifle GOP War Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen is keeping his sometimes bumpy Republican troops lined up behind President Johnson in fighting the war in Vietnam.

The resilient Dirksen climbed out of a hospital bed Monday, not yet fully recovered from a bout with pneumonia, to put down an incipient revolt among party members who don't like the way the war is going and are searching for a Republican alternative.

Finishes Lecture
When Dirksen got through lecturing them at a closed Policy Committee meeting about the political liabilities of questioning the commander in chief's basic direction of a bloody conflict, they went docilely along with a statement giving "wholehearted support" to Johnson and standing "foursquare" behind him.

This put the Senate Republicans in line with the latest stance assumed by one of the leading candidates for their party's 1968 presidential nomination, Michigan Gov. George Romney.

Romney said in Atlanta, Ga., Monday that "I don't think we should pursue a way that will weaken the President as long as he is president. And I don't think we should pursue a course that will help the enemy."

The wily Dirksen left an avenue open for the GOP dissenters in "preserving wholly the right of full and fair inquiry and criticism" on their part. They, in turn, left no doubt of their intention to march up that route.

Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., leading war critics, enlisted

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a supporter of Johnson's course, in urging greater administration efforts to get negotiations and avoidance of any step that might bring Red China into the war.

Javits said this and other proposals were being submitted for a proposed policy statement. Dirksen said a statement will be made by the Senate-House leadership at its next meeting. But he made it clear it will not publican Party of this nation's policies and objectives in Vietnam."

He was happy about a disputed report of the Policy Committee's staff which sharply criticized Johnson's policies and suggested that Republicans ought not to take any responsibility for his "mistakes."

"I believe this report will be of great value to us in proposing alternatives to administration policies which have been unable to bring either victory or solution," he said.

But Sen. John G. Tower, R-Texas, said that while the bulk of the report was factual and useful, "I find it necessary to disassociate myself with a number of its inferences and suggested conclusions."

Two London Gold Hijackers Named

LONDON (AP) — Three known London criminals have been identified through photographs by two guards and a truckdriver as the thieves who hijacked $2.1 million in gold bars from an armored truck Monday.

Scotland Yard said it was the first break in the nationwide search for the men who overpowered the driver and guards in a daylight ambush. None of the three wore a mask.

Police believe the stolen gold, weighing 1 1/2 tons, has been hidden in one spot until the case cools down. Then, police speculate, the gold is likely to be melted down for sale in small quantities.

Sen. Everett Dirksen

Burst Into California Capitol

Armed Negroes Bewilder Legislators

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A stunned California Legislature surveyed its security precautions today while Negroes who burst into the Capitol bearing a variety of loaded guns at noon Tuesday were summoned to court.

Twenty-six youths aged 17 to 25 were arrested by city police with drawn revolvers and hauled to the police station in a paddy wagon shortly after they left the Capitol agog Tuesday.

They were accused of possessing two illegal sawed-off shotguns, brandishing weapons in a threatening manner, disrupting the Legislature in session and carrying a fully loaded weapon in a car.

At the Capitol today, support mounted among amazed and disgruntled lawmakers for tightening security and imposing more severe penalties on those who disrupt an Assembly or Senate session.

"Black Panthers"
It was a noon-hour session of the assembly that a dozen of the armed youths — members of the "Black Panther Party" — succeeded in penetrating briefly before they were ushered out and several of the loaded rifles, pistols and shotguns taken away by two state policemen in a mild struggle.

No guns were fired at any time, and the armed men took care while in the Capitol not to overtly threaten anyone with the guns. They remained silent except for a spokesman, Bobby Seale, 25, of Oakland. He said they appeared to defend their constitutional right to bear arms, criticized "racist Oakland police" and opposed a bill outlawing the carrying of loaded weapons in public.

No one could remember anything like it happening before.

Reaction ranged from simple amazement to anger. A Democratic Negro assemblyman from the Watts district of Los Angeles, Bill Greene — considered a militant advocate of Negro rights — commented: "This action was not militant, it was senseless. No person black or white can condone this action."

Jim Rooney, one of three sergeants-at-arms manning the swinging gates that block off the Assembly chamber door 50 feet away, said that suddenly "a wave of them just rushed in and shoved us out of the way."

He was knocked into a chair by someone in the traveling mob of about 50 Black Panther members, reporters and television cameramen.

The man presiding when the armed men burst into the rear of the chamber, speaker pro tem Carlos Bee, D-Hayward, remarked later "the Legislature is certainly upset by the whole episode. People must be identified and have passes to come onto the floor. Any citizen can get a pass and there is no reason for anyone to push through in this manner."

"Attempts to Coerce"
Assemblyman Don Mulford, R-Piedmont, author of the gun control bill the group protested, said he was "shocked beyond belief. It's a direct attempt to coerce me. This whole thing is an affront to the people."

Even Gov. Ronald Reagan was involved in the incident, and it caused some worried moments for his aides, who already afford him more protection than previous governors.

Reagan was scheduled to lunch on the west Capitol lawn

Construction on College Avenue makes Appleton's main downtown street look like it belongs in a 19th-century gold-mining town. Some paving work was begun this week and the overall rebuilding project is expected to be completed by September. Post-Crescent Photographer Ralph Acker leaned over from the roof of the Aid Association for Lutherans building to snap the picture.

Investigating Family Trouble

Milwaukee Policeman Killed

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Roman Catholic monsignor spoke gently to the 9-year-old boy whose policeman father had just been slain.

"You're going to have to be brave. You're going to have to be the man of the house," Msgr. Joseph Emmenegger told Tommy Hogan.

The boy just got home from school and his mother, Mrs. Ronald T. Hogan, had blurted out the words: "Tommy, your father is dead."

Now the monsignor was trying to soften the blow.

"Today your father went to work," he said. "There was a miserable man in a house who shot him. Your father is dead." The boy's father, veteran Milwaukee Patrolman Ronald T. Hogan, 36, was killed Tuesday while investigating what police call family trouble in a north side home.

A bullet from a high powered rifle pierced the patrolman's throat.

The assailant, Lavern A. Freitag, 48, was fatally wounded moments later by Hogan's partner, Patrolman Harold W. Smith.

Smith, who emptied his gun at Freitag, said Hogan had led the way to an upstairs bedroom where Freitag stood behind a closed door.

Fired Again

"I saw a man standing there with a rifle in his hand. He said something about he should kill me," Smith said. "I fired what I had left. He fell to the floor."

"It is the hardest thing to tell these children," said Mrs. Hogan.

Her daughters, Linda, 13, and Doreen, 11, sat nearby. Their faces were wet with tears.

"They came to the door," Mrs. Hogan said. "I asked, 'Is he hurt?' No. He is dead," they said.

"He was never afraid of anything," she said.

Dairyland Slogan May Disappear From Plates

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — The slogan "America's Dairyland" may melt from Wisconsin's butter-yellow license plates if a suggestion of the Governor's Board on Economic Development is adopted.

In its place they would like to put Gov. Warren P. Knowles' industrial development motto, "We Like It Here."

The move would call on the Legislature to adopt the new slogan to appear on the millions of license plates issued, starting in 1971 — or earlier.

The date is somewhat fixed by the adoption of a new four-year plate system which started in January with the first issue of new plates.

Changing Economy
The suggestion, the board points out, is in line with the only one aspect of the state's Adopted many years ago, "America's Dairyland" signifies the only one aspect of the state's many-faceted economy.

"After all, Wisconsin farmers like it here, too," said Robert F. Draper, Milwaukee, backing the proposal to the board.

Board chairman H. B. Groh, president of the Wisconsin Telephone Co., successfully urged the board not to explicitly call on the Legislature to remove the agriculturally-oriented symbol from state plates.

"I'm just thinking about the mechanics of how you get it done and what route you take and who you alienate and whether the cost is worth more than whatever you gain," he said.

Paul Pratt, director of the division of economic development of the executive office, warned of opposition which would be caused by any direct moves to drop the existing slogan.

Run Into Opposition
"Where you will run into opposition is with your farm groups," he said. "They are sensitive and at times they can be belligerent," he stated.

The move was adopted as part of a drive to gain greater coordination of industrial development emphasis from all state departments. Cooperation has been lacking at times in the past, especially from such agencies as the State Highway Commission in preparing highway maps, and the Department of Agriculture in running the state's "Alice in Dairyland" contest, the board implied.

"We Like It Here" was adopted as the slogan of a state industrial development program by Knowles shortly after becoming Governor in 1965. The slogan, rapidly adopted by many industrial and private elements of state society, has been the hallmark of the successful program.

Court Grants Divorce To Menasha Woman

OSHKOSH — Corrine R. Mogenburg, 29, Menasha, was granted a divorce in Circuit Court Friday from Louis A. Mogenburg, 31, Texas.

The couple was married in 1958 in Oconto. It was the first marriage for both parties.

Firemen Called to Assist 2 Children Injured in Mishaps

Appleton firemen were called twice Monday to assist two children, one who was injured in a fall from a bicycle and the other who cut herself on broken glass.

At 6:37 p.m., the rescue squad went to the 800 block of W. Frances St. when Vicki Niemuth, 8, 3142 N. Richmond St., fell from her bicycle and suffered skinned knees, a cut left leg and a mouth injury. She was taken home by private car, according to police.

An hour later, the rescue squad took Cynthia Brabender, 4, 832 W. Harris St., to Appleton Memorial Hospital after she suffered a severe right arm cut caused by a broken storm door glass.

Appoint Appleton Woman to State Alcoholism Committee

Mrs. Kyle Ward Jr., 1821 S. Carpenter St., was appointed today to the Alcoholism Advisory Committee, Madison. She will serve for one year on the committee which acts as a sounding board for Alcoholism Services, a part of the Division of Mental Hygiene. The appointment was made by the State Board of Public Welfare.

Elected Locally
For the past eight years, Mrs. Ward has been active in the Outagamie County Mental Health Association and the Wisconsin Association for Mental Health. In December, 1965 she was named "Woman of the Year" by the state association and now serves that group as chairman of the Alcoholism Information Committee. She also was elected recently to the new Appleton area Citizens Alcoholism Services, Inc.

At present she is president of the Outagamie County Day Care Center and has helped develop a program for mentally retarded young adults.

Re-appointed to a second year on the Alcoholism Advisory Committee is Mrs. Fern Smith, Waupaca, who also was re-elected secretary of the committee.

Wednesday, the committee will hear Dr. Thomas Plaut, of The National Center for the Prevention and Control of Alcoholism, Washington, D.C.

The advisory committee includes 23 men and women from various areas of the state who this past year have initiated educational programs, proposed legislation and assisted in developing community needs for alcoholism services. Other new members of the committee are Robert F. Cooper, Kenosha; Charles Curtis, Beloit; Mrs. Helen Graham, Madison; Amos Johnson, Monroe, and Charles Orth, Milwaukee.

Avenue's New Gas Line Installation Completed

KAUKAUNA — Three members of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons were awarded 50-year certificates and cards from the Grand Lodge and a 50-year lapel pins from the local lodge at an appreciation night program Saturday in honor of Ernest R. Hiegel, La Crosse, grand lecturer.

Over 100 Masons and their wives turned out for the dinner and program. Norman E. Smith, Green Bay attorney and a past grand master of Masons in Wisconsin and a thirty-third degree Scottish Rite Mason, was guest speaker.

Honored for 50-year membership were Ripley Richards, Appleton; Olin G. Dryer, Kaukauna; and H. William Johnson, Sturgeon Bay. Honored in absentia was James Whitman, San Diego, Calif.

Dryer, past master and worshipful master during 1942, presented 25-year cards to Myron P. Black and Woodrow Heilman, Kaukauna, and J. Fred Mueller, McHenry, Ill.

Dinner Music

Dinner music was offered by Rick Erickson of the John F. Rose Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Appleton. A choral group from Kaukauna High School under the direction of Phillip Foxgrover, student director, sang several a cappella arrangements.

Past master Frank Ferrige served as master of ceremonies and introduced Smith, Hiegel, Alf E. Anderson, Stevens Point, past grand master; Eugene Williams, Oshkosh, grand treasurer, and Vincent Becker, Two Rivers, grand sword bearer, all members of the Grand Lodge.

One of the first phases of the College Avenue reconstruction program was completed during the past weekend when Wisconsin Michigan Power Co. finished installing a new main for natural gas.

Work on the last section of the main at the intersection of College Avenue and Appleton Street was completed Saturday.

Maurice Lewis, gas division manager, said "The fine cooperation shown by all the contractors and utility companies doing work in the avenue helped our main installation to progress rapidly."

Connect Buildings

WMPCO also is installing new gas service pipes from the main to all buildings along the avenue and this work should be completed by June 15, Lewis stated.

During the past two months, approximately 3,800 feet of 12-inch main have been installed to replace the existing lead joint 6-inch main in the north side of the avenue, at least 3½ feet below the street surface.

"WMPCO is spending $100,000 to do this work now while College Avenue is torn up, so we can increase the supply of natural gas to meet present and future needs," Lewis explained. "In addition, less maintenance work should be required due to the modern design and advanced construction of the new pipe."

Free Installation

"Before the service pipes went in, each property owner and tenant on the avenue was notified that the installation would be done at WMPCO's expense," Lewis said. "We explained that by laying pipes to all buildings, whether or not they use natural gas at present, we hoped to eliminate the need for ripping up the new pavement later when a building owner requests service."

The gas division manager pointed out that preparations for the new main began a year ago when preliminary survey work was started. The actual construction work involved trenching, laying the main and backfilling the trench. Old Service pipes are being disconnected and all service pipes between Richmond and Oneida Streets had been tied into the new main by Saturday.

"When the work is completed, College Avenue will have one of the most modern and up-to-date gas distribution systems in the country," Lewis said.

Rural Shiocton Man Fined $35 for Mishap

KAUKAUNA — Melvin W. Powers, 25, route 2, Shiocton, pleaded guilty of driving in a manner other than reasonable or prudent and was fined $35 when arraigned before Clarence O'Connor, municipal justice, Monday morning.

Powers was arrested last month after the car he was driving broke off a power pole, resulting in three persons being hospitalized and putting much of the northside of Kaukauna and Little Chute out of power for about two hours.

Police Pursue Suspect in $16,000 Gibson Robbery

Man Reported Trying to Sell Fur Coats Today in Omro Tavern

OSHKOSH — Police from Oshkosh and Winnebago, Waushara and Green Lake counties this morning were pursuing a suspect in the $16,000 robbery at the Alenor Gibson home here Friday.

The suspect reportedly tried to sell fur coats to customers in an Omro tavern this morning. Winnebago County authorities said at 11:15 a.m. that the suspect left the tavern and headed toward Berlin.

A number of furs were taken by two men who robbed the Gibson home while Gibson and his wife were forced to lie down. Their hands and feet were taped by the men. Jewelry and cash also were in the loot.

Receive Call

Oshkosh police received a call about 10 a.m. saying that the man was in the tavern. An Oshkosh detective left to pursue him. Winnebago County squads were notified at that time. So were Waushara and Green Lake county police.

Until this morning police had no suspects in the case. The Gibsons could give police only vague descriptions of the pair, since the robbery was performed in darkness. Police Chief Harold Guenther said Monday that the pair might have waited for the Gibsons to return home. The Gibsons were grabbed by the men at about 10:30 p.m. as the couple was about to enter the home from an attached garage. They had been gone since 5:30 p.m.

Gibson was injured twice in the forehead when he struggled with one of the thieves. The second time, when he tried to turn on a light to identify the men, he was hit in the head with what he thought was a gun.

When he fell to the floor, he was forced to remain there and his hands and feet were taped. His wife was forced to lie on a couch and her hands and feet also were taped.

Pleads Innocent on Bad Check Charges

Mrs. Mary E. Hahn, 41, 314 S. Victoria St., Tuesday afternoon pleaded innocent to three charges off issuing worthless checks.

Outagamie County Judge Gustave J. Keller set $100 bond and continued the case to May 9.

Mrs. Hahn was charged with issuing $25, $26, and $36 checks last October and November at the Kroger Store, 2700 W. College Ave.

$120,000 Grant Set For Official Review

Meeting Scheduled Thursday For Area Sewer, Water Study

Planning commissioners, of the commission, announced today that FHA officials will be in Appleton to discuss the grant which was reduced in January from $276,000 due to a lack of federal funds.

The grant would be for planning water and sewer systems in communities having less than 5,500 population.

William Morris, executive director, at that time said a "scaled down" request could accommodate 40 to 60 communities in the nine-county region being limited to those with "vital needs."

Falling Tree Kills Logger

Ogdensburg Man, Peter J. Knutson, Crushed in Mishap

WAUPACA — Peter J. Knutson, 57, route 1, Ogdensburg, was killed Tuesday when he was struck by a tree while cutting logs five miles northeast of Iola. Knutson, who died of crushing head injuries shortly before 11 a.m., was found by his brother, Edward, who was working in the same woods.

According to an investigation conducted by Undersheriff Loran Frazier, Knutson had cut off one tree with a chain saw which hung up in another tree. When he cut off the second tree it apparently fell in the wrong direction and the tree that had been hung up landed on him as he was attempting to get out of the way.

Knutson's body was taken to the Voie Funeral Home, Iola, where arrangements are pending. Knutson is survived by his wife, one daughter and two grandchildren.

Police Investigate Village Car Theft

LITTLE CHUTE — Police have put out a state-wide bulletin for a 1963 model car which was reported stolen from the garage of Ted Verkuilen, 135 W. Main St., about 10 p.m. Saturday night.

Keys to the car, hanging on a nail in the garage, were used by the thief, according to police.

City, Town Officers Vow Cooperative Problem Solutions

Discuss Kensington Drive Extension, Annexation Policy

Appleton and Town of Buchanan officials met at the city hall Tuesday and reaffirmed their policy of cooperating to solve mutual problems.

Joseph DeBruin, town chairman, met with the board of public works to discuss problems involved in extending Kensington Drive on the city's far southside.

The road will extend into the township, and DeBruin wanted to know what arrangement could be worked out so town residents would not be saddled with special assessments for a 40 foot road while those in the city were paying for a 33 foot roadway.

Will Serve Plant

Extension of the road is necessary to serve the new plant of the Riverside Paper Corp., now under construction.

The possibility also exists that some town residents will want to annex to Appleton.

"If people in our town want to annex, I won't stop them," DeBruin told the board, adding that the town had always cooperated in the past with the city and intended to do so in the future.

At the same time DeBruin said, in effect, it was a two-way street and he did not want Appleton to put the pressure on any individuals to annex.

Appleton officials said they had no intention of doing such a thing.

Good Relations

"We have always had good town-city relations and will continue to do so," commented Mayor George Buckley.

Public Works Director Frank Keuler indicated town officials were "always cooperative when mutual problems arose."

While no decision was reached concerning the assessments, town officials indicated they would not object to the road extension but wanted all information possible to give their people.

"I would say Appleton is happy to cooperate with all the communities in this region," Buckley commented today, citing that while Appleton and Town of Grand Chute had some problems he felt Town Chairman Thomas Thorson was "a fair and rational man to deal with."

"There is one we don't get cooperation from though," Buckley declared, "and that's the Town of Menasha."

The board opened several bids for city equipment and its recommendations will be acted on by the council at its regular meeting tonight.

Men Plan Barbershop Songfest

Tickets are on sale for the Valley-Aires-sponsored annual men's barbershop show at 8 p.m. May 20 at Appleton High School.

Theme of the songfest will be, "Bring Back Those Good Old Days" and featured, will be songs from the turn of the century including the barbershop favorite, "Sweet Adeline." Three quartets and the chorus will be featured on the program.

Quartets participating include the Seek-A-Tones, Waseca Minn., the Resonators, Racine and the 1966 international champions, Auto-Towners, Dearborn, Mich. A portion of the proceeds will be used for the Logopedics Institute, a charity adopted nationally by barbershoppers who have adopted the slogan, "We Sing So That Others May Speak."

Carl Schumacher, chorus director, is in charge of lining up quartets. Clayton Kohl heads the ticket sales in Appleton, assisted by all members of the chorus. Belling Pharmacy also is handling tickets. Others will be sold at the door, space permitting. Russ Johns has charge of sales in Kaukauna.

Rotary Anniversary Speaker

General Says Enemy Can't Win Vietnam Takeover Try

"The enemy aggressors cannot win, nor can I see an early end to U.S. participation in the conflict, but Vietnam is still our best long-range hope for world peace," Brig. Gen. Frederick J. Karch told a gathering of about 300 Rotary Club members at their golden anniversary dinner in the ballroom of the North Shore Golf Club Tuesday night.

Karch, director of the command and staff college at the Marine Corps Education Center in Quantico, Va., led the first U.S. Marine ground combat unit into the Republic of Vietnam in 1965.

"Our role in Vietnam is to prevent a complete communist takeover and all other aspects of the conflict must be viewed in that respect," the general said.

Red Method

Vietnam can be considered as another in a series of methodical steps by the communists in their design for world domination, Karch pointed out.

The general quoted remarks made by enemy leaders in North Vietnam and China emphasizing that communist success in South Vietnam is imperative for future plans. "If they're crushed here, they know they can be crushed anywhere," he said.

"The communist strategy is to involve Americans as much as possible in order to weaken them, both materially and morally," the general noted. "The tactic of the Viet Cong guerrillas is to establish rural revolutionary base areas and to isolate the cities," Karch said and added, "We're engaged in a project to defeat that tactic — a tactic which will continue to be used unless it's stopped now."

Inching Forward

Citing the process as a long and difficult one, the general said, "We're slowly inching forward, taking over hamlets, villages and agricultural lands.

In addition to seeking out and destroying the enemy, we have to follow-up by supplying constant protection to the people of these secured areas in order to bring about a reconstruction program," Karch pointed out.

"The typical Marine has no doubt why he's in Vietnam; he can see the reasons with his own eyes," the general said. The Marines look on their foe as clever and diabolical; yet they're meeting that challenge and their morale is as high as anyone can hope, he continued. "The motivation and dedication they have shown certainly speaks well for this nation."

"The best long-range hope for world peace is in the establishment of a world balance of power. No one can be allowed to dominate and that is why we're in Vietnam," he concluded.

Fox Cities Building Feels Impact of Operators Strike

College Avenue Construction Not Affected, Officials Claim

The impact of the statewide strike was being felt in the Fox Cities region today, and the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board (WERB) moved to get disputants to the bargaining table.

Local 139 of the International Union of Operating Engineers struck the Associated General Contractors (AGC) Monday, crippling a major construction jobs in the state.

An estimated 300 union members are off the job in the Fox Valley from Fond du Lac to Green Bay. There is also strong possibility other unions honoring picket lines will walk out.

The WERB was in contact group today in hopes of setting up a mediation session for Friday or Monday.

Joseph Getz, Milwaukee, a business agent for Local 139, said when negotiations are resumed they will be conducted at Madison.

He indicated in the case of "critical projects" involving the general public, interim arrangements were being worked out.

Getz said, for example, construction would not be halted on Appleton's College Avenue project.

However, he indicated there was one major job in downtown Appleton which would be shut down where 35 union bricklayers are at work. It could be the Soldiers Square ramp project, he would not say.

Intend to Picket "Wherever other people are operating equipment that would normally be manned by our union operators, we intend to picket around the clock if necessary," Getz said.

More than 1,100 heavy equipment operators and at least 60 engineers were in their third day of a work stoppage in all but seven of the state's counties.

Local 139 called the strike Monday after marathon weekend talks with the AGC failed to end in agreement on a new contract. The previous three-year pact expired April 1. The AGC is the bargaining agent for several contractors throughout the state.

Separate Contracts Counties in the metropolitan Milwaukee area were not involved in the dispute because work is covered by separate contracts.

Beloit to Give Honorary Degree to Envoy to Iraq

For 50 Years of Practice

Wisconsin Physicians Will Honor Dr. Mielke

Dr. Edward F. Mielke, 74, Appleton, is one of seven Wisconsin physicians who will be honored for 50 years of medical practice.

The citations will be presented at the Wisconsin Medical Society's annual convention in Milwaukee.

Other doctors who will be honored for 50 years of service are Clarence H. Boren, Mar-

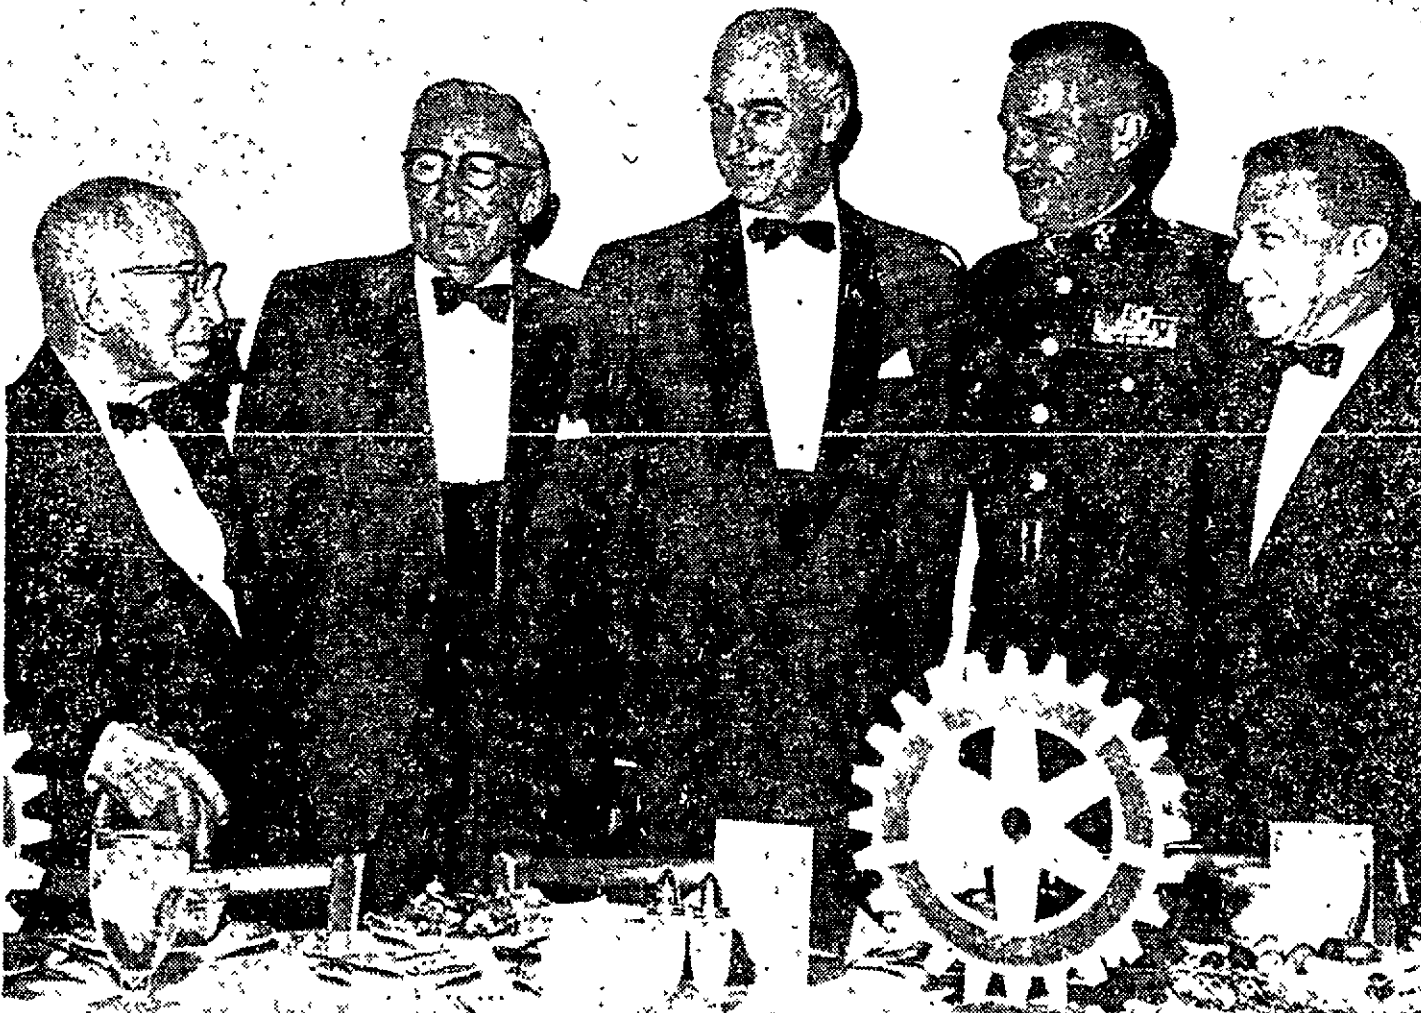

Dr. Mielke was born Dec. 3, 1892 in Shawano. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1915, and from Rush Medical College of Chicago in 1917.

World War I After serving in the armed forces during World War I, Dr. Mielke took his internship at Cook County Hospital in Chicago.

He began his practice in Appleton in 1921 with special interest in surgery, and was associated with the late Dr. E. L. Bolton for 35 years.

Dr. Mielke was an alternate delegate to the state medical society for one year, and has been president of the Outagamie County Medical Society, first chief-of-staff of Appleton Memorial Hospital, senior Federal Aviation medical examiner for several years, and a licentiate of the National Board of Medical Examiners.

He now practices with his son, Dr. John Mielke, a cardiologist. Dr. and Mrs. Mielke have four children.

Due to the presence of Chairman Roland Kampo at meeting, Mayor Kenneth Holmes of Menasha, Carl L. Buckley of Neenah and George Buckley of Appleton met privately in Buckley's office to further strategy beyond ears of the town chairman.

The tri-city council session described as an informal, international gathering, was called in reaction to the bill. A huddle of the mayors and city attorneys resulted in a war chest plan, along with decisions.

Menasha Councilmen Vote $1,000 Toward Lobbying

MENASHA — The city will cast its lot with others to fight before the state legislature. The move bore out a prediction by City Atty. Richard Steffens at an unprecedented joint meeting of the three city councils Monday night. He told the officials, assembled amid an atmosphere bordering on emergency, "I have a hunch there are going to be some mighty fast transfers of funds" if such a war chest plan were put to the three councils.

Johnson Hill's Sales Increase, Earnings Drop

NEENAH — Record sales of $15,958,951 for the fiscal year ending January 31 have been announced by Johnson Hill's, Inc., Wisconsin Rapids based department store chain and subsidiary and parent company of Jandrey Co.

Although sales exceeded the previous year's high of $13,948,456, net earnings dropped to $149,259, or 69 cents per share, for the year. These figures compare with $332,670 and $1.59 respectively for the preceding year.

Shareholders' equity of $15.89 per share at January 31 represented a record high.

Johnson Hill's President Chester O. Bell pointed out that the vastly improved co-ordinated merchandising controls effected during the past four months have given promise of greatly improved profit levels for the current fiscal year. Additionally, extensive remodeling operations which curtailed past year's earnings at two stores have been completed.

Menasha to Fete WWI Veterans

MENASHA — Ceremonies in honor of the 50th anniversary of Menasha's Company E, Fourth Wisconsin Infantry, have been scheduled for May 16 in the common council chambers.

Survivors of the World War I fighting unit will be presented by the council with a resolution being drafted by City Atty. Richard Steffens.

Earlier, it had been suggested that the ceremonies be held in the Menasha High School auditorium, to assure enough space for the veterans, their wives and the council. Tuesday night, Ald. William Erickson, who has been interested in the program since it was first suggested, was assured by Mayor Kenneth Holmes, the council chambers would be large enough.

Certificates and Lapel Pins were presented to three members of the Free and Accepted Mason Lodge at Kaukauna Saturday during a dinner to honor Ernest R. Hiegel, right, grand lecturer of the grand lodge of Wisconsin. Hiegel is presenting certificates to Ripley Richards, Appleton; H. Williams Johnson, Sturgeon Bay, and Olin Dryer, Kaukauna. Dryer presented 25-year awards to several other members.

Dr. Rapoport Speaker for IPC Banquet

Michigan Professor To Discuss 'Three Gifts of Science'

Dr. Anatol Rapoport will be the speaker for The Institute of Paper Chemistry Executives' Conference banquet Thursday night at North Shore Golf Club. His topic will be "The Three Gifts of Science: Prediction, Control, and Insight."

Dr. Rapoport is professor of mathematical biology and a senior research mathematician at the Mental Health Research Institute of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

His educational background includes a degree in music from the State Academy of Music in Vienna in 1934, and a doctorate degree in mathematics from the University of Chicago in 1941.

Research Areas His research has been primarily in mathematical biology, mathematical psychology, and mathematical sociology, as well as the philosophy of science, theories and techniques of conflict resolution, and semantics relative to specific fields of human behavior. He is the author of eight books.

Dr. Rapoport has lectured and traveled widely. He was born in Russia and visited there last year to attend the International Psychology Congress in Moscow.

He belongs to a number of scientific societies, and currently is president of the Society for General Systems Research.

Police Checking Missing Phone, School Equipment

Appleton police are investigating the thefts of a telephone, several pieces of sound equipment, and tools from Appleton High School-West.

Wisconsin Telephone Co. officials told police Tuesday afternoon that a pay telephone was taken sometime in February from the main floor at the high school. About $10 in change was in the telephone money box, police were told. Value of the telephone was set at $106.

More than $500 worth of sound equipment and tools were reported missing from the auditorium stage Tuesday afternoon. Missing were a stereophonic tape recorder and two reels, an amplifier, a slide rule, four microphones, and six wrenches.

Lawrence Schedules Recital For Chamber Music Students

Chamber music for woodwinds, piano and strings will be the fare on a student recital to be given at 8 p.m. Thursday at Lawrence University's Harper Hall.

The program will feature students from the chamber music classes of Kenneth Byler, associate professor, and Dan C. Sparks, assistant professor of music.

Two Fox Valley area residents among the recitalists are clarinetist Robert Pendleton, Kaukauna, and violinist Madeleine Menten, Manitowoc.

Soo Line Seeks to Raze Menasha Depot

MENASHA — The Soo Line Railroad is seeking Public Service Commission permission to remove its depot facilities in Menasha and to transfer some of the freight handling functions to the Neenah depot.

A public hearing on the request will be held at 1 p.m. June 5 in the Menasha council chambers.

Raze Old Structure

Downtown Rail Depot Soon Will be History

The North Western Railway Co. passenger depot at 303 N. Superior St. is about to be removed.

Charles Magnette, director of inspections, said today that a razing permit has been issued to the Madison Moving and Wrecking Co.

Owned Locally

The depot, which became a "victim" of a running dispute between the city and railroad in the 1950's over train crossings being arrested for blocking streets for lengthy periods of time, is owned by Midway Realty.

Plans reportedly call for using the property, once the building is leveled and the site cleared, for a parking lot.

Since 1958 the railroad has had its passenger depot at Appleton Junction at the southwest edge of the city.

The railroad also has a freight depot building on Franklin Street.

Police Warn Of 'Fraud' By Salesmen

Resident Complains About 'Sale' of Baby Furniture

Appleton detectives this morning issued a warning on what appears to be a fraud involving the "sale" of baby furniture.

The warning came after a southside resident told police Tuesday that he had signed an order for a piece of furniture which he said included an "automatic baby feeder," high chair and swing.

The man told police the salesman showed a film illustrating the furniture. He paid the salesman $10 down and agreed to pay the remaining $130 in monthly installments. The furniture was to have been delivered within a week. That was on April 4, and as of Tuesday, the man still had not received the item, police were told.

In a mortgage form appeared to be a mortgage, police said the firm to which the mortgage was assigned was not listed nor were the signature of the salesman nor the item purchased.

The salesman told the Appleton man he worked for a Green Bay firm, but a check by the man reportedly revealed there was no such firm in Green Bay.

Police Check Theft Of Tractor Radiators

Outagamie County police are investigating the theft of two tractor radiators, valued at a total of $55 from Brandt Implement Co., Black Creek.

Legislature Gets Petition From Municipal Officials

250 Signers on Paper Backing Unilateral Annexation Measure

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — Petitions signed by officials of 250 Wisconsin municipalities backing a unilateral annexation bill proposed by the League of Wisconsin Municipalities were submitted Tuesday to both houses of the state Legislature.

The petitions, endorsed by mayors, managers and presidents of 116 cities and 134 villages, were filed in support of a bill which would allow unilateral annexation of suburban areas surrounding municipalities.

The petitions, said League leaders, prove that the bill has broad support throughout the state and is not simply a measure which will aid the largest cities.

Freelich, Risser
The bill has been pushed by the Alliance of Cities, which is working within the League, but includes mainly cities in the largest urban areas of the state.

The bill was authored by Assembly Speaker Harold V. Freelich, R-Appleton, and Senate minority leader Fred Risser, D-Madison.

The bill has failed to win the support of Gov. Warren P. Knowles, who has described himself as being sympathetic to the need for increased aids and powers for cities, but city proponents have failed to indicate new revenue sources to meet their demands, Knowles has said.

The unilateral annexation bill leaves other questions unanswered, he has argued, and the governor has suggested that the problem be left until a tax redistribution study committee, headed by Lawrence University President Curtis Tarr, can report to the 1969 Legislature.

A second aspect of the committee's study will be local governmental organizational problems, of which a part will be annexation problems, Knowles says.

Registering in support of the bill were large delegations from Brown, Door, Fond du Lac, Kaukauna, Manitowish, Marinette, and Oconto counties, plus:

Calumet County — Brillion Mayor Clarence Wolf, Chilton Mayor Harry Thompson, Kiel Mayor Albert Breckheimer, and New Holstein Mayor James Mauer.

Outagamie County — Appleton Mayor George Buckley, Kaukauna Mayor Gilbert Anderson, New London Mayor Harry Emans, Seymour Mayor Ben F. Trueman, Black Creek Village President Irvin Dorn, Hortonville Village President Ray Warner, Kimberly Village President Alvin Fulcer, and Little Chute Village President Ed Spierings.

Shawano County — Cecil Village President Martin Juedes;

Gresham Village President Ger-vase Ebert, Wittenberg Village President G. A. Meisner, and Shawano Mayor Martin Weing. Waupaca County — Clintonville Mayor Frank Sinkewicz, Marion Mayor Cecil A. Welch, Waupaca Mayor Lloyd Mathe-son, Embarrass Village President Harvey Schmidt, Fremont Village President Thomas Pitt, and Iola Village President Adam Horle.

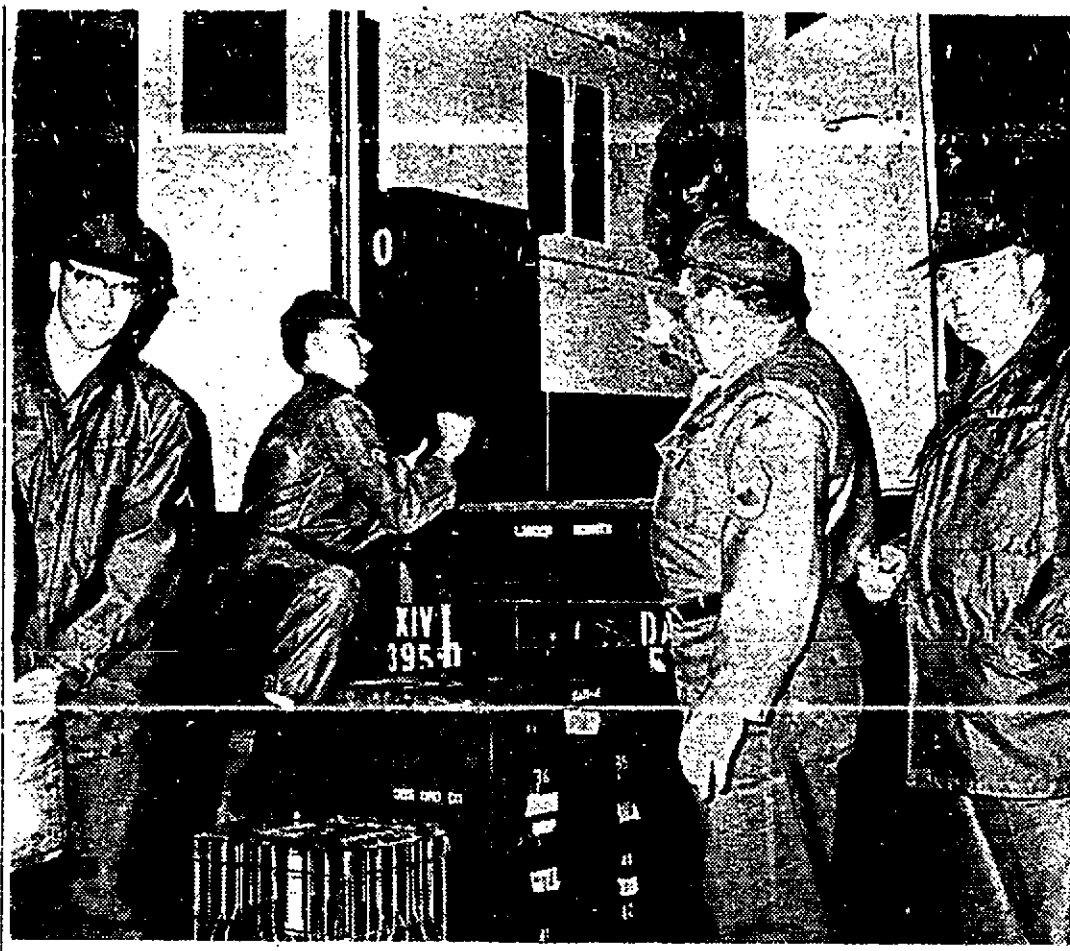

Winnebago County — City Manager Angus Crawford, Oshkosh; Menasha Mayor Kenneth Holmes; Neenah Mayor Carl Loehning and Winneconne Village President James Coughlin.

Two Missing Teens Believed Involved In Theft of Car

Two 17-year-old Appleton boys, both on probation for car theft, are believed to have stolen a 1958 auto in Appleton Monday evening and abandoned the vehicle near Fond du Lac.

Fond du Lac authorities notified Appleton police Tuesday afternoon that the car, owned by Norbert Springstroh, 708 N. State St., had been found near the spot where another car was stolen. Springstroh's car was taken Monday from the 800 block of W. College Avenue.

The car stolen in Fond du Lac was found abandoned in Milwaukee, leading authorities to believe the youths are traveling south. The boys were reported as missing from their homes

Members of the 395th Ordnance Company Tuesday night loaded vans in preparation for two-week summer camp at Camp McCoy. The unit leaves for camp next Saturday morning. Pictured from left are Pfc. ## School Bonds Receive Preliminary Approval

NEENAH — Preliminary approval of a bond issue for $225,000 for an addition to the Lakeview School was given by the finance committee Tuesday to clear the way for a multi-purpose bond issue in the coming weeks.

Aldermen and town representatives will be asked to give their okay to the initial resolution at tonight's council meeting.

Clerk R. V. Hauser urged committee action, even though the plans for the seven room addition haven't been prepared.

Hauser is presently preparing a bond issue to cover a number of items and noted the cost estimates for the addition could later be scaled down if needed.

Six Rooms
The construction project, which will be handled by the architectural firm of Boettcher and Ginnov, Neenah, calls for two kindergarten rooms, four regular classrooms and a library.

Jack Meyer, president of the Neenah school board, told the committee the area would be short several classrooms in the next few years if the addition wasn't approved. He added a recent census showed that 73 new children were in the area served by Coolidge and Lakeview schools and the board "anticipated good continued growth" on Neenah southside.

Meyer said the addition was also needed since no progress has been reported on the proposed parochial school for that district.

The addition would be constructed on the west side of the Lakeview school to bring the structure up to 16 rooms.

Some renovation of the present building would be needed, including the possible replacement of one heating plant. The interior of the school would also be remodeled.

In other action, the committee approved $1,500 for the Neenah-Menasha Jaycees' Fourth of July celebrations, with $1,250 going for fireworks and $250 for the parade. These amounts are the same as last year.

The group recommended the Oshkosh Daily Northwestern be the official newspaper for city proceedings since it was the low bidder for the contract.

Teacher Dies at New London of Drug Overdose

NEW LONDON — Mrs. Marquerite Larson, 41, 615 Dickinson St., who was found dead here Monday evening, died of an overdose of drugs, according to a ruling issued today by Dr. John Monstead, Waupaca County deputy coroner. The ruling was made after an autopsy.

Mrs. Larson, a native of Manawa, was a 1943 graduate of Washington High School here and a 1947 graduate of Milwaukee State Teachers College.

At the time of her death she was employed by the State Department of Public Instruction as remedial reading teacher.

She is survived by two sons, her father, and one sister.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Cline and Hanson Funeral Home here. Burial will be in Little Wolf Cemetery, Manawa. Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. today.

Vandenbroek Clerk Resigns

Edward Bankert, Town of Vandenbroek clerk for the past 22 years, has resigned from his post.

He announced his resignation recently at a meeting of the town board. Town Chairman George Kroes and board members appointed Ivan Coenen, a farmer, as Bankert's replacement.

Bankert is moving to Merrill where he is going into business with his son-in-law.

Appleton Variety Theatre

Queenly King Sisters Serve Vaudeville Fare

BY JAMES AUER
Post-Crescent Sunday Editor

The 1966-67 Variety Theatre season came to a close with a healthy serving of old-fashioned vaudeville Tuesday, as television's statuesque King Sisters, and a couple of their menfolk headlined an amiable, if somewhat erratic, variety bill presented under the title, "Hollywood Palace."

The queenly Kings, four ample ladies of lively humor and indeterminate age (one, Louise, has been married to co-star Alvino Rey for 29 years), performed during the second half of an evening that had earlier been occupied by a stand-up comic, a sister act (two girls this time, instead of four) and guitarist Rey.

Although the production, described by bandleader Peter Palmer as "An Evening with the King Sisters and Alvino Rey," lacked the driving pace and superb technical polish of such earlier attractions as "The Johnny Mathis Show" and, to a lesser degree, "The Phyllis Diller Show," it was an amusing and undemanding way to spend a chilly spring evening, and audience reaction was favorable.

Liked Comedy
Certainly, those assembled in Appleton High School auditorium were tolerant of, and, indeed, encouraging toward rolly-polly comedian Mike Caldwell, a big man with a wild sense of improvisatory humor.

The Chicagoan's patter, disorganized, but with some original twists, flashed from the home front to the battlefield, with jibes along the way at television, bingo in churches, The Post-Crescent and even the American Red Cross.

Unfortunately, the vagaries of the amplification system (one assumes these lapses were not part of the act) threw off Caldwell's timing, and some of his foolery directed at the offending microphone, seemed drawn out. His act's impact would have been stronger, if he had been given fewer minutes to fill.

Dignity Strip

The opening duo, two shapely sisters operating under the accurate title, "The Living Dolls," made their initial bow dressed as Raggedy Anns. After suitable acrobatics in these unwieldy costumes, they began a dignity strip which culminated in a vigorous and entertaining dance routine, choreographed to standard show tunes.

It was an act that built to a strong climax.

Alvino Rey, accompanied as always by the home-made, electrified steel guitar that "talks back" to him, offered a brief, nostalgic turn, reminiscent of the long-departed days of "The Alvino Rey Orchestra, with the King Sisters." His wizardry with the guitar and banjo is still a joy, and he seems to bear lightly his many years of show-business success.

Another King husband, Kent Larson, the group's musical conductor, came on strong with the trombone, and joined with the group in a vigorous finale.

Kings Talented

The Kings, strongest draw on the bill, proved as talented and unpretentious in person as they appear to be on television. They are, after all, wives, mothers and grandmothers, and their continuity as a family unit is noteworthy in a business where such ties sometimes seem no more durable than contracts with 26-week options.

The girls poked fun at themselves and the folks out front, ran through a medley of tunes made famous by themselves and other performers of their vintage (the Andrews Sisters, Judy Garland, Les Paul and Mary Ford), and presented a musical biography that explained how their sister act came to be.

Their style was relaxed and accomplished, as might be expected, and they cavorted with an effortless professionalism that seemed to delight the large and sympathetic audience.

Before the curtain rose on the night's entertainment, Andy Serrahn, Variety Theatre impresario, announced that the 1967-68 season will feature appearances by John Gary, Florence Henderson, George Gobel and Tom Ewell, starring in the comedy, "The Impossible Years."

It looks as if another good season is in prospect for Variety Theatre and its sponsor, the Appleton Gallery of Arts.

Correction

A story Tuesday stated that Mrs. Patricia Cumber, route 2, Black Creek, received a divorce from Melvin Cumber, whose address is unknown. Actually, Mrs. Cumber was granted a legal separation.

Star Colleen Dewhurst Claimed by Lawrence

Actress From Milwaukee Plays Feminine Lead in 'The Crucible' on TV Thursday

BY MARGUERITE SCHUMANN
Of Lawrence University

A Lawrentian by adoption will face national television audiences Thursday evening from 8 to 10:15 p.m. on the Xerox dramatic telecast of "The Crucible" by Arthur Miller. Channels 2, 7 and 12 will telecast in this area.

The actress is Colleen Dewhurst, who plays the female lead of Elizabeth Proctor in the Miller play opposite her ex-husband George C. Scott, cast as John Proctor.

Miss Dewhurst became a Lawrentian by merger, when Milwaukee-Downer and Lawrence Colleges united in 1964 to form Lawrence University. She was a member of the Milwaukee-Downer class of 1948. She worked her way via the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, off-Broadway shows and finally to the big-time of Broadway.

Colleen Dewhurst is seen in her role in Arthur Miller's "The Crucible" in which she will appear Thursday night on CBS-TV, including Channels 2, 7 and 12.

Earl Wilson, famed syndicated columnist, wrote of Colleen 10 years ago when she was playing in "Children of Darkness":

"I found myself in wholehearted agreement with the critic who had written: 'One must stand in honest awe of Miss Dewhurst's sultry-nouthed, stony-eyed trollop; as bad girls go, she is a beauty to be remembered.'"

"She's shaped like Sophia Loren and has the tempestuous temperament of Anna Magnani."

Another Pro-Dewhurst

"A wire services writer observed four years ago:

"In proof of her determination to range far and wide across the thespic gamut, the miss from Milwaukee has appeared before New York audiences in such wildly contrasting roles as weepy Camille, sultry Cleopatra, a heroine of Shakespearean romp and stark O'Neill tragedy.

"The effect on critics and public has been equally diversified; but even when the verdict has been adverse, the stamp of Dewhurst individuality has been unmistakable."

Miss Dewhurst has been the subject of feature articles in Life and Horizon magazines. Although she is considered essentially a character actress, she has had her moments of billing as a sex symbol. A writer for the New York Times noted: "Connoisseurs consider Colleen Dewhurst the equal or superior of Elizabeth Taylor in simple beauty."

Fine Stage Credits
Here are a few of Miss Dewhurst's stage credits: she played at the Spoleto Festival in Italy in Eugene O'Neill's "A Moon for the Misbegotten"; did the film "A Nun's Story" with Audrey Hepburn in Rome; appeared with Julie Harris in "The Country Wife" and Lillian Gish in "All the Way Home"; portrayed Camille at the Cherry Lane Theatre; and did "The Ballad of the Sad Cafe," adapted for the stage by Edward Albee from the novel of Carson McCullers.

While she was playing opposite George C. Scott in the off-Broadway "Children of Darkness" the pair fell in love and were married. Scott had had two previous marriages, while Miss Dewhurst had been wed to actor James Vickery. They played together in several Broadway productions, including "Desire Under the Elms." Their marriage dissolved after Scott formed a close friendship with Ava Gardner during the filming of "The Bible" in Sicily.

Miss Dewhurst was recently interviewed by Frank Langley in connection with her forthcoming appearance in "The Crucible."

She's Unpretentious
Langley wrote: "There are few actresses in all the world with greater talent and less pretensions than Colleen Dewhurst."

"The brilliant and beautiful lady recently strolled into Sardi's wearing an expensive fur coat over a sloppy joe sweater, her face freshly scrubbed and without a trace of makeup, and her ponytailed hair bound with a rubber band.

"You look lovely," I said. "You're crazy," she replied. And that ended the subject of her appearance.

"Asked if she had any fears about her role in The Crucible, Miss Dewhurst confessed she did not. 'You know when something is good,' she said, 'and I can't say that often. I am really looking forward to seeing this one.'

Her Toughest Role
"If you want to hear about a tough role, let me tell you about last Christmas. I really live in New England, near Salem," she said. "The kids go to school there, and the thing I like most about it is that it keeps my career and their lives completely separated."

"So wouldn't you know, last year the local drama teacher calls and asks if I will please play Santa Claus at the annual Christmas party. Well, I did it, but I will state unequivocally that I have never played to a tougher audience nor have I ever been more thoroughly frightened in my entire life."

'Lebanon' Back as NBC Special
BY TV SCOUT
8-9 (Channels 4-5) — "The Road to Lebanon," a sprightly Danny Thomas Special has a plot just like some of those old Bob Hope-Bing Crosby movies, which is really what this is. Seems Crosby feels Hope is too old for another Road Movie, so he flies off to Lebanon where Danny is judging a Miss Lebanon contest (the girls are so covered up, the only measurement available is 20-20 vision). But in Lebanon, there is a tribal chief named Ali Ali Oxen Free who wants to kill Danny, a member of the tribe, for being guilty of the greatest sin of all, "Ulsimior." So Ali sends his "son" Laurence of Lebanon, played by sexy Claudine Auger, to lure Danny to his death. Sheldon Leonard appears as an Arabian story teller and Hugh Downs as himself. (R)

6:30-7:30 (Channels 2-7-12) — The Robinsons have to look for a new home on Lost in Space when it seems that their planet is about to disintegrate. (R)

6:30 - 7 (Channels 11-6-9) — Holy It's About Time. Batman's heaviest villain appears in the very large person of Victor Buono, as King Tut, once a Yale professor and now the self-proclaimed reincarnation of Egyptian royalty.

6:30-8 (Channel 5) — "High Stakes" provides some high-octane drama for The Virginian. James Drury is the center of attention all the way for a change, hunting down two brothers who he suspects have slain a pal of his. (R)

Jessica Tandy and husband Hume Cronyn are seen performing in Edward Albee's play "A Delicate Balance." The drama was awarded the Pulitzer prize this week, marking the first time since 1965 that the Pulitzer was awarded in the drama category. (AP Wire-photo)

8-8:30 (Channels 2-7-12) — When Green Acres kicked off its new season last year, they recapped the series' premise, about how Eddie Albert and Eva Gabor met, married and deserted the city for the country, and they are doing that again tonight as the first in the show's rerun schedule. (R)

8-10 (Channels 11-6-9) — The Wednesday Night Movie presents one of the finest features of this TV year, "The Hustler," starring Paul Newman, George C. Scott, Piper Laurie, Myron McCormick and Jackie Gleason. It is stark drama, with sometimes seamy sensitivity, brutal realism and several drawn-out pool room scenes that provided a fine edge-of-the-seat tension. Newman plays a pool shark who comes to New York to take on Minnesota Fats (Gleason) the gambling world's top pro. Although he loses, his talents do not go unnoticed. His problem, he is told, is his lack of ice cold unemotionalism, which he learns.

8:30-9 (Channels 2-7-12) — Gomer Pyle-USMC has some amusing strikes down the entire platoon except the extra-healthy Gomer. Sergeant Carter basks with delight in the hospital, thankful that Gomer won't bug him, only to find the ever-cheerful private is a constant visitor. (R)

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

CURE MENTAL ILLNESS?
YES ☐ NO ☐

No. Time alone or even well-meaning family help is less likely to cause accidents than the man who comes to work after a terrific domestic battle. Industry is rightly concerned with the home life of its employees.

Movie Times
Viking — (now playing) A Man for All Seasons at 2 p.m., 7 p.m., 9:15.
41 Outdoor — (now playing) Devil's Angels; Covenant with Death. Shows start at dusk.
44 Outdoor — (now playing) The Corrupt Ones; Devil's Angels. Shows start at dusk.

Yes — No —

It certainly is — in two important respects. One, a good marriage adjustment is usually the sign of a good person. The person who gets along well with his family is more likely to be able to get along well with other persons. Two, a good marriage helps to stabilize a man. The man whose family is reasonably contented is less likely to steal, for example, than the man whose wife is always pressing him to buy her more than he can afford. The man with a

Filibuster for Butter Delays Oleo Okay

Senate Remains Confident of Passage Despite Roseleip Effort

MADISON (AP)—A final and probably futile filibuster for butter has delayed the Senate's effort to legalize colored oleo but has failed to dent its determination.

Sen. Gordon Roseleip of Darlington, beefy candy store owner from the dairy domain of southwestern Wisconsin, aimed an all-day assault at oleo as the upper house waded into the historic debate Tuesday, but leaders remained confident of passage today.

Senate majority leader Jerris Leonard, R-Bayside, said he had a personal commitment from Roseleip to reach a final vote on the bill by sunset today.

Last Bar
The measure, already approved 67-30 by the Assembly, would repeal the nation's last remaining ban on colored oleo and allow the sale of the butter substitute in Wisconsin starting July 1.

Although Senate strategists originally had hoped to send the repealer directly to the governor for signing into law, Leonard said a snarl in the wording of the bill would force a return trip to the Assembly.

The majority leader said the measure had failed to assure that any product identified with butter or cream must include 40 per cent butterfat. The Senate planned to clarify the wording and send the bill back to the Assembly for acceptance of the minor change after passage.

Senate approval seemed certain from the pattern set Tuesday in floor votes rebuffing each of Roseleip's efforts to dilute the repeal bill.

20-Cent Tax
The closest vote was 19-12. The biggest setback for butter was a 27-2 whipping when Roseleip tried to attach a 20-cent tax to colored oleo.

The Assembly bill tacks on a tax of 5 1/2 cents a pound until 1972. The money is to be used to build a $5 million dairy and animal research building at the University of Wisconsin.

It took six hours Tuesday to wade through the first seven amendments offered by Roseleip. The Darlington Republican agreed to drop 86 others, but 22 more were left on the calendar for continued debate today.

"I still have a chance," said Roseleip, even though one Senate vote after another indicated otherwise.

Demanding by Public
"The great majority of the people want colored oleo and they want it badly," said Sen. Allen W. Busby, R-Milwaukee, floor general for the repeal measure.

Busby called oleo the overriding issue in the 1967 legislature as far as the public was concerned.

Colored oleo has been an outlaw in Wisconsin since 1895. The Senate remained a burial ground for all repeal bills until the longtime Agriculture Committee chairman, Sen. Earl Leverich, R-Sparta, was defeated in last September's election.

Roseleip, the new and probably last defender of dairy domination of the dinner table, unfurled a total of eight speeches against oleo Tuesday, pausing only long enough to lose on each vote.

The first and longest speech ran 66 minutes. Three others lasted half an hour each.

Boy Answer to Mother's Dream

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — Thirteen-year-old Russell Mello is a mother's dream.

He loves to do chores — and he'll go just about anywhere in town to lend a helping hand.

There's no charge for his services and when he polished the handrails at St. Luke's Hospital he supplied his own brass polish and cleaning cloths.

He did the job because "I thought it would be nice for charity."

When he is paid for his work, most of the money goes in a savings account for his college education. He wants to be an engineer.

Russell is a sixth-grade student and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Mello.

tended their high school prom and today their 17th birthday, they take their annual trip to Minneapolis as guests of restaurateur Ernie Fliegel. The quads are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Seifert. (AP Wirephoto)

Court Suit Considered

Most Voters Negroes, but White Candidate Wins in Mississippi

SUNFLOWER, Miss. (AP) — Negro civil rights forces apparently lost their first major grass roots political fight in this delta area, where Negroes outnumber whites.

However, a federal court suit was in the making, alleging that the municipal election in Sunflower was not held "in a fair and impartial manner."

Registered Negro voters outnumbered white voters in Sunflower 185-153. But when the votes were counted Tuesday, white candidates for mayor and alderman held a decisive edge.

Mayor W. L. Patterson, who has held the $50 a month post for 12 years, defeated Otis Brown Jr., 21, by a count of 194-123 — indicating that Patterson drew some Negro support despite the aggressive Negro campaign to split the balloting along racial lines.

Woman Struck, Killed By Own Runaway Car

DIXON, Ill. (AP) — Ella M. Leigh, 33, was struck by her own auto and killed Tuesday.

Witnesses told police Mrs. Leigh parked the car on a hill and began walking away from it. They said the car began to roll downhill and Mrs. Leigh ran in front of it, trying to jump inside, but was unable to get out of its path in time.

$4 Million Fire Razes Warehouse In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A spectacular $4 million fire, touched off when a gasoline truck overturned and spilled its cargo, raged through a six-story warehouse in a Milwaukee industrial area Tuesday night.

Fire Chief James Moher, who called the blaze equivalent to a seven-alarm fire, said more than 30 pieces of equipment and some 230 fire fighters were called to the scene.

The building housed the Jewett & Sherman Co., a food processing and distributing firm. The fire, which got its start when the overturned truck spilled flaming gasoline on the building, was fed by large quantities of cooking oil inside the structure, Moher said.

Fire officials estimated the damage and said the building and contents were both expected to be total losses.

Start With 35,000-Man Reduction

Mansfield Calls for Gradual Cutback in European Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield urged today a "phase by phase reduction" of U.S. troops in Europe, and said a planned 35,000-man cutback is a good start in that direction.

The chief Senate advocate of a substantial reduction in U.S. troop commitments in Europe also indicated he will seek to keep the pressure on for continuing withdrawals.

But Mansfield said in an interview he is not seeking abrupt, swift reductions.

"I realize that these things can't be done overnight," he said.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk discusses the troop issue today at a closed session of a special Senate panel headed by Mansfield.

It is considering a series of resolutions on the topics—chief among them, a measure sponsored by Mansfield and 43 other senators—that would have the Senate declare itself in favor of substantial U.S. troop reductions in Europe.

"We don't intend to end the hearings in a hurry," Mansfield said. "We're not going to rush out with any findings."

The hearings will continue to focus attention on the topic and on the Mansfield resolution, which the Johnson administration opposes.

German Withdrawal
The United States announced Tuesday a plan to withdraw up to 35,000 Army and Air Force personnel, plus their dependents, from West Germany.

Great Britain and West Germany endorsed the move as part of an effort to cut the cost of European defense.

Administration officials estimated the manpower transfer would mean savings of about $100 million a year in foreign exchange expenditures.

The withdrawal of U.S. troops and of four squadrons of U.S. warplanes will not begin before next Jan. 1. Under the three-nation agreement, Britain would withdraw 5,000 men and a squadron of aircraft.

While the administration announcement emphasized cost reduction, Mansfield labeled the move "a sound foreign policy decision on the part of the administration."

Mansfield advocates a reduction from six U.S. divisions in Europe to two divisions.

Surface Proves Out

Surveyor Stilled During 2-Week Lunar Night

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — after the sun rises on the moon

Surveyor 3 starts a well-earned two-week sleep tonight after 10 days of digging into the mysteries of the moon.

Four historic trenches — the first furrows made by man in any but his native soil — are visible evidence of what scientists suspected — that the lunar surface is strong enough to support manned landing craft.

More than 6,000 pictures televised by the tripod spacecraft show the dry, grainy soil has the consistency of wet sand, at least to the depth of 7 1/2 inches, and there is some indication of a harder layer underneath.

Controllers at Jet Propulsion Laboratory radioed commands Tuesday preparing the 620-pound spacecraft for the minus 250-degree lunar night with taped instructions for the operation of the heater protecting its electronic brain.

Scoop Poised
The hand-sized scoop mounted on a five-foot extension, was left poised 30 inches above the surface, ready to resume digging

Picture taking will continue until the lunar sunset, about 6 p.m. EST tonight prevents Surveyor 3's swiveling eye from snapping any more shots of the gouged and hammered terrain between two of the spacecraft's skeletal circular padded feet.

In 27 hours of scoop operation, Surveyor 3 has dug four 2-inch wide trenches, the largest nearly two-foot long.

That one, created by five passes of the scoop, is 7 1/2 inches deep. Measurement of the electrical power needed to pull the shovel toward the spacecraft on successive scoops indicate soil firmness increases with depth.

Walls Standing
Latest photographs of this series show the walls are still standing, marked with well-defined tracks from screw heads on the lower jaw of the scoop.

Two rocks — one a half-inch in diameter, the other twice that size — have been picked up by the scoop but disappeared after being dropped.

The scoop, like the arm of a toy steam shovel, also was pushed into the soil seven times and dropped — from heights up to 30 inches — 13 times to test the bearing strength of the surface.

Federal Spending at Record—and Rising

BY SYLVIA PORTER

Let's say that you are a junior member of a wealthy, free-spending family who has been given the responsibility of keeping the family's books in order and of writing checks to pay outstanding bills. Let's say, too, that to help control their own extravagances, the "bosses" of the family have instructed ceiling has remained to this day. But since 1959 — as before 1959 — federal government spending has continued to rise and it has pushed the national debt way above the permanent legal ceiling. To make the extra Treasury I.O.U.s legal, therefore, Congress has been setting a series of higher, "temporary" ceilings on the debt. The current limit is $336 billion.

Now this ceiling too is heading for oblivion, for our annual federal budgets continue billions in the red and the Treasury will be compelled to borrow huge amounts of new money in coming months to pay the federal government's bills.

So Fowler this month will ask for another boost in the "temporary" debt ceiling into the $340-$350 billion range — and he will ask that it be voted before June 30 to prevent the limit from falling back to the "permanent" $285 billion mark and by so doing, technically making big chunks of the Treasury's already outstanding debt illegal.

Start at White House
The Republican-Democratic squabbles about a higher debt ceiling during the 1967 rites could draw an unusual amount of political blood because they may force disclosure of some harsh facts about the extent to which the 1968 fiscal year budget is sinking into the red. But the basic facts to remember during the blood-letting are these:

It appears a far-fetched tale, doesn't it? But in essence, this is the sequence of events which will be unfolded at the annual spring spectacular of "the flagellation of the bookkeepers" scheduled to open in mid-month on Capitol Hill in Washington. Playing the part of the family bosses will be the Congress and the White House. Playing the part of the family accountant will be Secretary of the Treasury Fowler. Watching the spectacle from all over the country will be America's taxpayers, who in the end, of course, pay all the bills.

Since 1918, when a federal government debt ceiling was written into the law, Congress has placed a series of legal limits on the national debt to restrain federal spending. In June, 1959, that "permanent" ceiling was set at $285 billion and there, the "permanent"

It is the White House which originates most spending programs and submits each year's budget estimates.

It is the Congress which approves these spending measures and often adds to them, without voting the tax increases to pay for the programs.

It is the Treasury which then must perform the task of borrowing the cash required by the actions of the White House and Congress.

ed you to pay their bills only up to a specified limit.

Now let's say that the bosses go on a prolonged binge and run up a batch of bills which piques the limit they themselves set on the family's spending. Then, when you try to fulfill your routine responsibility of writing the checks, they call you on the carpet and castigate not themselves but you. To add to the insult, they make indignant speeches in public when you explain that since they have broken their own restraints, they now have only two alternatives: boost the bill-paying limit so you can honor their debts or go into an unthinkable default.

Starts in Mid-Month

Kaukauna to Allow All Night Camping

Council Sets $1 Fee With 3-Day Limit; Orders Park Regulations

KAUKAUNA — Council members Tuesday night approved a recommendation of the health and recreation committee to permit overnight camping at the Grignon Home Park.

A fee of $1 per day will be charged, and campers will be limited to three days. Camping area regulations are to be prepared by the recreation director and reviewed by the committee.

The city clerk was instructed to contact McMahon Engineering Co., Menasha, to survey improvement work done last year on Arthur Street to determine whether the contractor followed specifications as set down by the city engineer.

Problems Exist

Because some drainage problem exists, several property owners feel they should not pay special assessments. Council members were told it might cost $200 to $300 to make the survey, and an unsuccessful attempt was made to refer the matter back to the board of public works before authorizing the work.

At the recommendation of Aid. Lloyd Kloehn, 2nd, information on any matter of interest to a particular committee will be filed in a committee box for study by the committee chairmen and members prior to discussion at a regular meeting.

Kloehn indicated, items of interest were appearing in the paper before the committee had any knowledge of them, and in some cases, correspondence which would facilitate committee action was channeled to the wrong person, and only came out after committee action. He felt an updated filing system

Back Planners

Aldermen approved a resolution and articles of agreement to establish the Fox Valley Council of Governments as successor to the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission. Under the revised articles chief executives of municipalities would serve as an executive committee for the planning group.

Approval was given to the vacating of Miner Street between W. Third Street and the alley south of W. Third. Although designated on the city map, this portion of the street, a hillside ravine, has never been utilized.

A bank of Kaukauna request for rezoning of land on W. Wisconsin Avenue was held for study by the planning commission at a May 23 meeting, when a representative of the bank will answer questions concerning parking and future plans.

Requests from the police department for three men to serve as summer replacements, and permission for the lieutenant to attend an administrative school at Madison May 24-26 was referred to the public protection and safety committee.

The Chicago and North Western Railway revealed plans to reshape the ground along the railroad right-of-way near Blackwell Street to help alleviate a drainage problem. Permission was granted the Electric and Water Utility to erect a 12 by 6-foot sign for two years on private property advertising the first electrical underground wiring installation in a recently platted area.

Kaukauna Methodists Ask Rezoned Property

Change to Business Class Would Permit Disposition, Moving to Little Chute

KAUKAUNA — Council members Tuesday night were requested by the Methodist congregation to have church owned property in the area of Portier, Catherine and John Streets rezoned from residential to central business district.

The church has purchased property near the eastern limits of Little Chute as a site for a new church and parsonage and is attempting to dispose of present property.

The area is relatively close to the business district and could be utilized as a banking, office or retail store site, according to officers of the parish. The request was referred to the planning commission for recommendation and study.

The Wisconsin Public Service Commission is forming the council of the Wisconsin Gas Co. request to construct an additional storage supply for Kaukauna at the Freedom gate station at an estimated cost of $317,698 and a Kaukauna Electric Utility request to construct a 7,500 KVA substation at Little Chute at a cost of $125,000.

Hire Students
Aldermen voted to advertise for bids for blacktop surfacing of the swimming pool entrance Mrs. Bayorgeon by the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission to secure estimates for surfacing the library tennis courts.

Three college students were hired at $1.69 per hour to work with park crews during the summer and four were hired to serve as park caretakers. Earl Siebers was hired as a full-time employee of the park department at a salary of $4,800 to be raised to $5,000 after successfully completing a probationary period.

The city treasurer was instructed to invest $150,000 in 30 to 60-day treasury notes as recommended by the city auditor. Investing of surplus city funds provides additional revenue, but still permits the money to be available as needed.

Car allowance for city officials on city business was increased from eight to 10 cents per mile. Plans were made to will be the main speaker at the review per diem expense allowances in view of increasing hotel bills and loss of wages. Last adjustment in these areas were made in 1963.

The Freedom baseball team of the Dairyland League was authorized to use the Doty Bayorgeon Recreation Area diamond at a charge of $10 per game. Aldermen adopted an ordinance to permit 3-hour parking on the south side of Third Street from Reaume Avenue to Hendricks Avenue extended and on the north side of Third Street from Reaume Avenue to Badger Northland.

Bayorgeon Plaque

A no parking restriction was placed on the east side of Hendricks Avenue in front of Bethany Lutheran Church. The city engineer was instructed to place school crossing signs on State 5 near 18th Street to protect children attending Quinney and St. Aloysius schools.

In an effort to reduce the number of accidents on a curve on Taylor Street, aldermen voted to install no passing and warning arrow signs near the curve. A utility pole on the curve has been a frequent target for motorists over the years.

Mayor Gilbert Anderson presented a plaque on behalf of Mrs. Lorraine Bayorgeon to Lloyd Kloehn, council president, as a memento to the council. The plaque was presented to Mrs. Bayorgeon by the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission for the work by her husband, the late Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon, in promoting orderly growth and cooperation among Fox Valley municipalities during his terms of mayor from 1946-66.

David Krings, Kaukauna High School student who served as mayor during the youth government day sponsored by the Jaycees and student council, presented Mayor Anderson with minutes of the meeting over which he presided together with student recommendations on various topics discussed.

Oneida Youth to Hear UW Center Adviser

Robert E. Powless, adviser to students at the University of Wisconsin-Fox Valley Center, will be the main speaker at the annual Oneida Youth Conference Saturday. The conference is scheduled from noon to 5 p.m. at the Methodist parish hall. Mrs. Cornelius Baird is program coordinator.

If Oscars Went to Foods . . . These Meats Would be Winners

POST-CRESCENT FOOD EDITOR
Lillian Mackesy

An apt take-off on the Academy Award winning movie this year could be "Meats for All Seasons" and the title would have meaning in spite of its flipness. These meat entrees today are excellent for dinners throughout the year . . . they certainly are dramatically individual, each dish in its own way . . . and guests would be the first to applaud them (or at least praise the hostess for preparing them) if they were served.

These are the sort of meats that men enjoy and the dishes are not at all "far out" so as to scare anyone off or break the budget. There's Beef Rouladen that's so easy to prepare and easy on the budget as well. This meat comes moist and juicy from the oven after an hour and a half of cooking and rates with expensive cuts of steak in popularity when the rolls of round steak (Rouladen) simmer slowly in a sauce of canned tomato sauce, red wine and a little water.

These beef rolls are one of many excellent ways to serve round steak. The filling for the "roularden" may be onions, carrots and celery or a vegetable mixture of the cook's own choosing. Serve with minted citrus salad, green beans almondine, buttered noodles, hot rolls and a favorite chiffon pie for a superb company dinner. This dish is one that can be put together the day before and refrigerated. Pop into the oven at baking time and forget all about it until serving time.

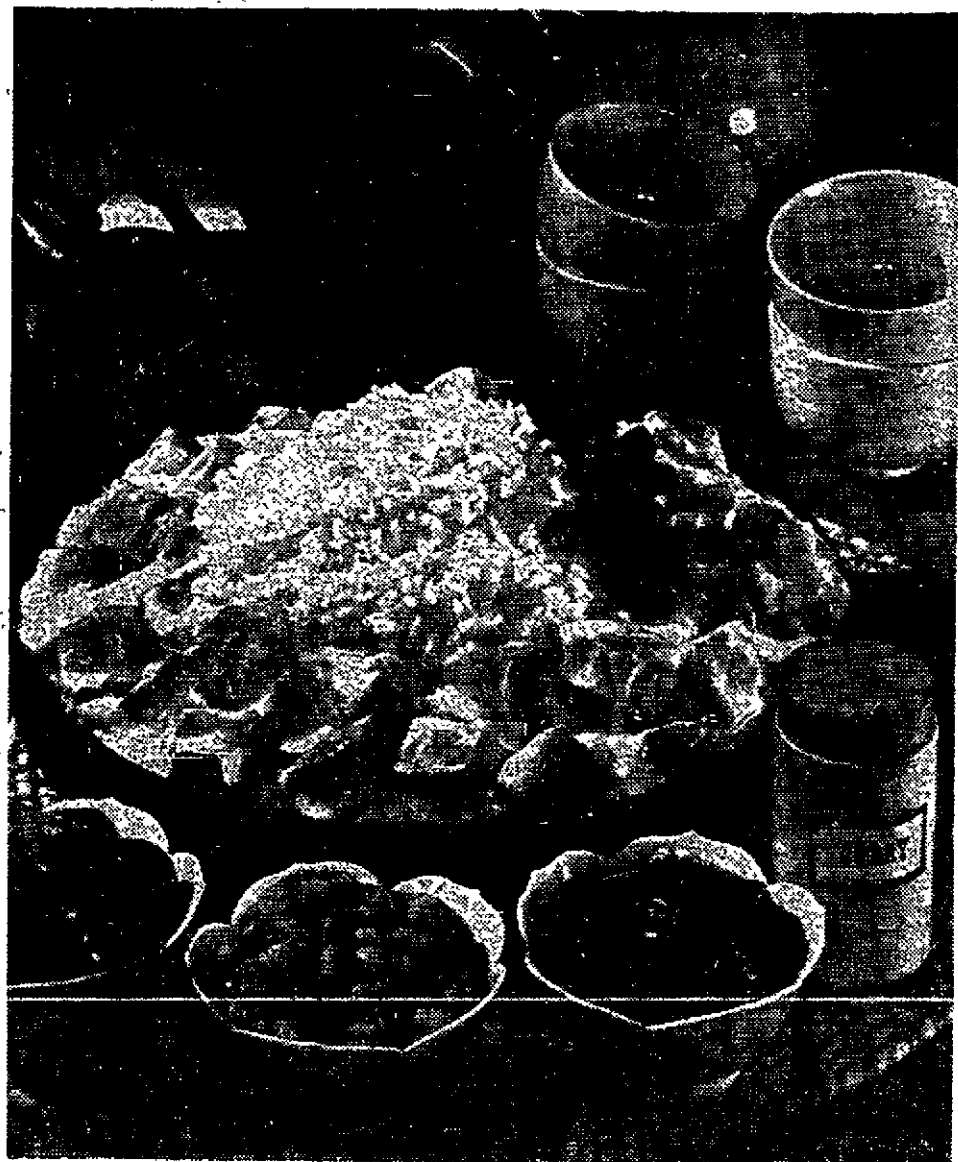

Veal Angostura

Another fine dish of beef are ribs prepared in barbecue style. These, too, represent an economical cut with full flavor of beef that becomes fork-tender with know-how. Just follow the recipe for cooking. The barbecue sauce with delicious tomato sauce, plus other sweet and tangy ingredients turns the

Bouquets Go to Behind-Scenes Work That Helps Food Success

Audiences applaud an actor, giving little thought to the work behind the scenes. On the food pages you will see hot dogs, ham and steak making headlines, while the supporting cast escapes recognition.

No one gives a bouquet to improved refrigeration systems, yet they provide maximum refrigerated storage life to sliced luncheon meats and hams effectively and economically.

Is there a cheer for the continuous frank process?

It makes sure that the favorite hot dog has the same flavor no matter where or when you buy it and at the best possible price. Let's have a bow, too, from the computers who calculate sausage formulas to guarantee consistently high quality.

Behind the bacon you buy you will find the development of electronic scales and semi-automatic slicing. And there are constant improvements in packaging, such as the reclosable carton packs. Vacuum packaging of processed meats preserves color and freshness more efficiently.

Spotlight Deserved

A tender steak or lean pork roast deserve the spotlight, but don't forget the thousands of research scientists, farmers, animal feeders and breeders who have made it possible. In addition, new tenderizing processes have been developed.

Continuous, low-temperature rendering of edible animal fats produces an exceedingly mild-flavored lard without the delays of the traditional batch processing method. Meat can now travel in insulated, refrigerated containers on trucks and trains and avoid exposure at distribution points. Countless other developments help to make the meat you buy a better product.

So, the next time the family praises the pot roast or pork chops served, say with the generosity of a movie queen, "I want to thank all those who made it possible."

League Tells Observers for Board Meetings

The League of Women Voters of Appleton has announced observers at public government meetings this month. Board members met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. David Halloran, 1910 Lave St.

Mrs. Robert Rosenberg will attend the Monday school board meeting and Mrs. Kyle Ward Jr., the May 22 session. Mrs. David Schuster will observe the May 9 Outagamie County Board meeting and Mrs. Ronald Weber, today's city council meeting.

Women's Equality Fight Again in Court Spotlight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cynthia Epstein of New York City is a teacher, sociologist, wife, mother and a fighter for equal rights for women — not necessarily in that order.

She was mostly a defender of women's rights Tuesday at a public hearing of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

"Laws established to protect women from the harsh and oppressive employment conditions of an earlier era in American history only serve to block them from the full range of occupations in which they might work," said the attractive, green-eyed brunette.

Limitations

"Further, these laws limit women to lower-ranking and lower-paying positions than those they might have if they were given access to a truly free labor market," she added. Mrs. Epstein, a teacher at Barnard College and a sociologist for Columbia University's Bureau of Applied Social Research, opposed primarily state laws designed to protect women from unscrupulous employers. She said they actually are used to discriminate against the female job-seeker.

Female Audience

"State protective laws are illegal, immoral and socially destructive," she said. Her stand won resounding ovation from the audience of nearly 100 — almost all women.

Mrs. Epstein, 33, wife of an editor and mother of a 4-year-old boy, told a reporter she didn't think she was another Carrie Nation in the fight for women's rights but "I am an emotional militant."

Mrs. Epstein was one of about 25 witnesses who appeared before the commission. Most subscribed to her feeling that the state protective laws encourage job discrimination.

New Career Opportunities

Betty Friedan, president of the National Organization of Women and author of "The Feminine Mystique," told the commission, "I would like little girls growing up to say 'I would like to be an astronaut, the President and even the Pope.' I want them to aspire."

Dorothy Haener complained that 11 states have laws which prohibit a woman from working at a job where she would have to lift 25 pounds or more as frequently as once a month.

Law Ridiculed

"This is ridiculous," she said. "Twenty-five pounds could be the weight of a full grocery bundle and every mother knows that most babies weigh that much in six months."

The commission heard testimony on regulations concerning sex distinctions in help wanted advertising columns and state laws to protect women. It will get testimony today on employees' pension and retirement plans.

Budget Guides Newlyweds to Wise Spending

Newlyweds living in a changing, mobile world will get the most satisfactory results from income if they set up a spending plan or "budget," says Louise Young, University of Wisconsin family finance specialist.

This plan should be "tailor made" to fit your particular needs. Percentages or amounts spent by others may not be good budget guides for you. She suggests money decisions be made jointly and plans kept simple and flexible.

Envelope System

A simple method for handling regular expenses is by putting cash for various budget items in separate envelopes. Supplement the "envelope" method by setting up a checking account for the bigger, irregular expenses. Later on you may wish to adopt another method of handling money.

Before buying anything on credit, shop around and make comparisons of dollar costs and interest rates. As a general rule, not more than 15 to 20 percent of income (after taxes) should go for consumer credit, warns Miss Young.

If you put money aside for savings first, you won't be tempted to spend it for other things. A sound savings program will give you money ahead for emergencies, big expenditures or unexpected illness.

Slips Stay Crisp

Feminine and frilly white petticoats and slips, made of durable press cotton, are natural go-togethers with sheer graduation and confirmation dresses. These slips keep their crispness after repeated sudsing, and never require ironing.

Janice Schnorr Parents Tell Engagement Of Daughter

CLINTONVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schnorr, 100 Dodge St., have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Janice May, to William Walker. ## Y Auxiliary Elects Mrs. Brummund; Honors Volunteers for Past Efforts

Women who have chosen to contribute their time and talents to the work of the YMCA through its auxiliary were honored at a noon luncheon Tuesday at the Y. New officers were also elected at the annual meeting, with Mrs. Walter Brummund named to serve as Auxiliary president.

Women in the auxiliary have given over 2,250 hours of volunteer work to the new Y during its first year. Since the auxiliary was formed four years ago, 13,183 hours have been donated by women, reported Mrs. Gerald Hoffman, chairman of the awards committee.

Thousand Hours
The increasing need for services is noted in the growth of Y membership, from 1,594 in 1963, to 5,002 in 1966. Mrs. James Mohr was the auxiliary membership chairman who as-isted in the drive. Members who received desk charm awards for 1,000 donated hours were Mrs. David Fulton, Mrs. Earl Bentle and Mrs. William Senecal. Mrs. Herbert Holtz, Mrs. Robert Kolosso, Mrs. Bentle and Mrs. Senecal received typewriter charms for 700 hours of work.

Pencil charms were presented for 250 volunteer hours to Mrs. Donald Bengs, Mrs. Otto Bytof, Mrs. John Peckham, Mrs. Robert Rae, Mrs. William Plank and Mrs. Kathryn Perry. Receiving bracelets with engraved discs for 100 hours contributed through the Auxiliary were Mrs. Mancha Bruggemeyer, Mrs. Peter Christianson, Mrs. Arnold Evans, Mrs. Harry Hall, Mrs. Jerry Mendelsohn, Mrs. James Mohr, Mrs. William Plank, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mrs. Ralph Schneider and Mrs. Brummund. Mrs. Senecal was given a token for her second year as volunteer chairman and Mrs. Brummund for her presidency. Mrs. Harry Hall made the presentations.

Among efforts carried out by the auxiliary during the year were bulk mailing, office work, addressograph, receptionist at main and auxiliary desks, youth department, health department, food department and special talents.

Among special areas of service auxiliary members have worked in are the dedication and open house of the new Y, selling tickets for the Y Men's Club circus, as hostesses at the Garden Club Flower Show and at the first statewide conference for Y women volunteers.

Assisting Mrs. Brummund with leadership of the auxiliary during the next year will be Mrs. Plank, first vice president; Mrs. Allen Gray, second vice president; Mrs. Evans, recording secretary; Mrs. Arild Miller, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. C. T. McCleery, treasurer.

Mrs. Thomas E. Orbison conducted the installation ceremony. Auxiliary advisor is Mrs. Maxine Vanevenhoven, director of the Women's and Girls' Dept. Mrs. Winton Schumaker and Mrs. Rudolph Voll entertained fellow members with a musical program.

Annual meeting arrangements were made by Mrs. R. Barton Hammond, social chairman, and were bulk mailing, office work, addressograph, receptionist at main and auxiliary desks, youth department, health department,

Marriage Promises Repeated

CHILTON — Miss Arlene Becker and Wayne Maile repeated wedding promises at 2 p.m. Saturday at St. Mary Catholic Church. Officiating at the double ring nuptial rite was the Rev. Duane Dionne.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Becker, route 1, Chilton, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maile, route 1, Brillion.

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Biese, New Holstein, a sister and brother-in-law of the bride, served as honor attendants. Miss Joyleen Maile was the bridesmaid and Robert Maile, groomsmen.

Ushering duties were performed by Jack Baldock and Donald Zuelzke.

A reception was held at Heller's Hall, Brant.

Mr. and Mrs. Maile will live in Brillion. She is a secretary with the Wisconsin Public Service Corp., Chilton. Her husband is engaged in farming.

Homemakers Tell Plans for Spring Events

Outagamie County Homemakers planned spring events at a Thursday council meeting at St. Mary Hall, Black Creek.

A scholarship will be presented to a high school senior at the Outagamie County Homemakers Night May 18 at Seymour High School. Twenty-five year pins also will be awarded during the program beginning at 8 p.m.

Sixteen representatives will attend College Week for Women June 6 to 8 at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Members also discussed plans for the national convention this summer in South Dakota and the triennial meeting scheduled in September at Lansing, Mich.

Russell Luckow, Outagamie County agent, discussed conservation. A tour of the county is planned May 10. Homemakers will meet at 9:15 a.m. at the old Outagamie County airport.

Progress reports were given by Mrs. Earl Woldt, health and safety chairman; Mrs. Leonard Timm, newsletter; Mrs. Orville Sell, homemakers night chairman, and Mrs. Richard Seidler, news chairman.

Mrs. Charles Wright was named county homemakers secretary and Mrs. Ewald Grove, treasurer. Mrs. Ray Schroeder will serve as Center I vice chairman and Mrs. Arnold Mueller, Center II vice chairman. Members voted to continue the study of cancer next year.

Ceremony Performed Saturday

MANAWA — St. Paul Lutheran Church was the setting for the 2 p.m. Saturday wedding of Miss Sally Ann Shambau and David J. Thiel. The Rev. C. F. Luedtke officiated at the nuptial rite.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Craig Shambau. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Thiel.

Serving as honor attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tesch, Appleton.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Thiel will live in Manawa.

Helle Melchior, David Hamilton To be Married

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Helle Melchior, 20, the granddaughter of operatic tenor Lauritz Melchior, plans to marry actor George Hamilton's brother David, 26, friends say.

They said the ceremony will take place May 13 at the Danish church in Los Angeles, followed by a reception in Melchior's house in Beverly Hills.

Studies Design
Miss Melchior, daughter of Mrs. Birte Melchior of Copenhagen, is an interior design student at Woodbury College.

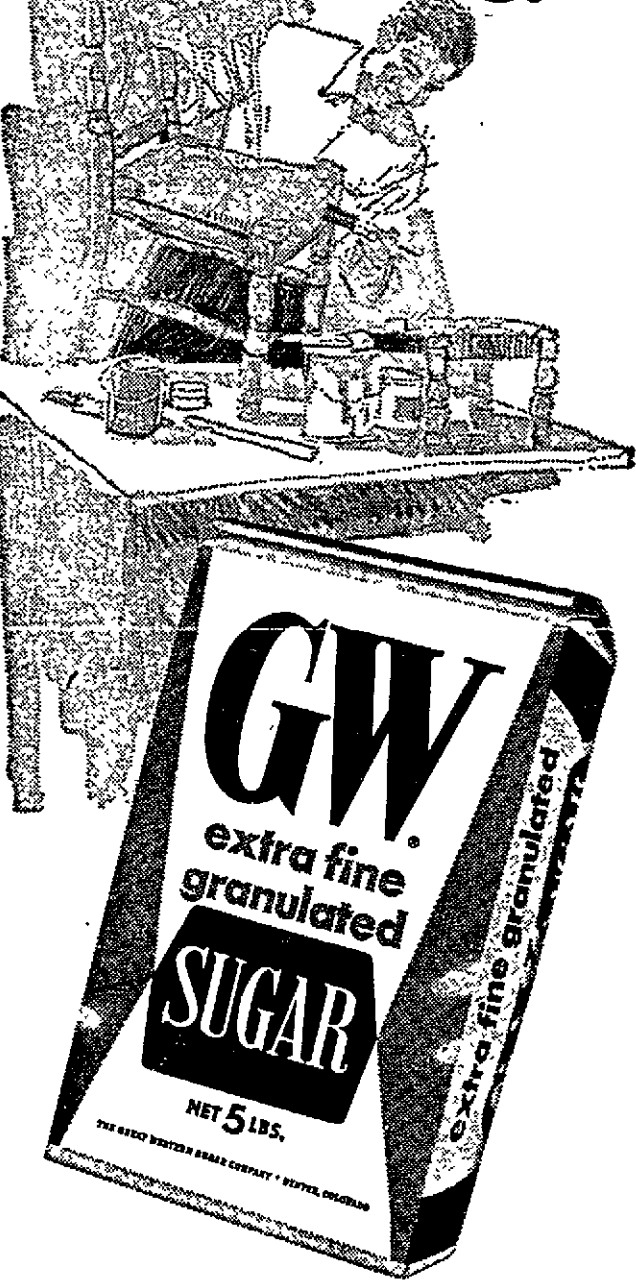

Hamilton, son of Anne Hamilton Spaulding of Beverly Hills, is a graduate of the University of Florida and works for an advertising company.

The couple, after a wedding trip to San Francisco and Hawaii, will live in Beverly Hills.

trick. Serve on hot cooked rice or buttered noodles, buttered peas, a tossed green salad, crusty rolls and maybe a lemon cake for dessert.

Curried Ham and Rice is another winner for flavor and ease in preparation. Using modern convenience foods, this dish becomes a snap. Fully cooked baked or canned ham needs only heating. The rich, smooth sauce is made quickly by adding half cream-half milk to canned mushroom soup, then blending this with small amounts (like grand-mother's pinches of this and pinches of that) of lemon juice, onion and curry powder. To serve, heap hot, fluffy cooked rice in the center of a pretty casserole dish, then spoon the ham mixture around the rice and garnish with bouquets of watercress. Serve with an assortment of condiments, such as chutney, salted nuts, kumquats and coconut and an extra supply of curry powder for those who like spiciness.

The other two dishes also belong in the "budget" category. One is the rib of pork (spare-ribs) baked Hawaiian style with a sweet-sour fruit glaze for basting. The other is Veal Angostura, a recipe that proves interesting things can be done with inexpensive cuts of meat. Here the meat is creamed, then zipped up in flavor with aromatic bitters and served in a ring of noodles.

BEEF ROULADEN
6 slices beef round steak, about 1/4-inch thick
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
3 carrots, cut into 3-inch strips
3 celery stalks, cut into 3-inch strips
1 onion, coarsely chopped
1/4 cup flour
1/2 cup pure vegetable oil
1 (8-oz.) can tomato sauce
1/4 cup red wine
1/4 cup water
Noodles
Remove excess fat from meat. Pound meat until thin; sprinkle with salt, pepper and garlic salt. Roll up meat with strips of carrot, celery, and chopped onion in center; fasten with string. Roll meat in flour; brown in hot oil on all sides over high heat. Add remaining ingredients. Simmer until meat is tender (about 1 1/2 hours). Serve with hot cooked noodles. Recipe makes six servings.

SHORT RIBS
BARBECUE-STYLE
2 1/2 pounds lean beef short ribs
2 tablespoons pure vegetable oil
2 (8-oz.) cans tomato sauce
1 cup water
1 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Cut beef into serving-size pieces and trim off excess fat. Brown short ribs on all sides in oil in heavy skillet; pour off excess fat. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over ribs. Cover and simmer one and one-half to two hours or until meat is tender. Recipe makes four servings.

CURRIED HAM AND RICE
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10 1/2 ounce) condensed cream of mushroom soup
3/4 cup half and half (milk and cream)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 teaspoons curry powder, or to taste
3 cups fully cooked, baked or canned ham cubes
4 cups hot cooked seasoned rice
Curry condiments, optional
Saute onion in butter. Add soup, half and half, lemon juice and curry powder; mix and heat. Stir in ham and heat. Mound rice in center of heated serving dish. Spoon ham mixture around rice. Serve with curry condiments, if desired. Recipe makes six servings.

Curry condiments include chutney, salted whole or chopped peanuts or almonds, preserved kumquats, toasted coconut, mixed sweet pickles, seedless raisins and curry powder. Serve separately.

VEAL ANGOSTURA
2 pounds boneless veal stew meat
2 cups boiling water
2 medium-sized onions, peeled and sliced
1 minced carrot
1 bay leaf
3 whole cloves
1/2 teaspoon white pepper
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup flour
1/2 cup milk
2 teaspoons Angostura aromatic bitters
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1 package broad noodles, cooked
Cut meat in 1 1/2 inch pieces. Combine with water, vegetables and seasonings. Bring to a boil, lower heat and remove scum. Cover and cook over low heat about one hour, until meat is tender.
Melt butter. Stir in flour. Gradually stir in milk. Add to meat and stir constantly over low heat until mixture thickens. Season with Angostura aromatic bitters and minced parsley and more salt if needed. Serve in ring of drained, cooked noodles. Recipe makes six servings.
Note: A pressure cooker may be used for quicker cooking. Follow directions for using cooker.

WAIKIKI SPARERIBS
5 pounds pork spareribs
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3/4 cup thick orange marmalade
1 can (8 ounce) crushed pineapple
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon ginger
1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
3 tablespoons lemon juice or vinegar
Bake spareribs whole or cut into four-rib portions, as desired. Arrange ribs, meat side up, on rack in shallow baking pan; sprinkle with salt. Cover pan with aluminum foil; bake in 350-degree oven one hour. Remove foil; continue baking 30 minutes. While ribs are baking, prepare glazing sauce. Combine marmalade, undrained pineapple, cornstarch, soy sauce, ginger, garlic salt and lemon juice or vinegar in saucepan. Bring to boil over moderate heat and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened.
Remove ribs from oven, drain off drippings. Spoon sauce over ribs. Return ribs to 375-degree oven to bake until tender and browned, 20 to 25 minutes. Recipe makes four to six servings.

Soft Oven Mitts Shine Furniture
Here's a "handy" time-saver: use a pair of oven mitts in soft quilted cotton to polish furniture.
Put oil or wax on one mitt and use the other to shine and polish. Mitts can be washed when necessary.

Waikiki Spareribs are temptingly prepared with a sweet-sour fruit sauce. The pork ribs are roasted juicy-tender over slow heat and may be baked with a bit of careful watching. Cover the ribs with foil during the first period of baking to keep them juicy. They make a wonderful entree for a buffet party and, of course, always are welcomed food at a family dinner.

Steer Foe Away From Best Line

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Part of the art of defending is to discourage declarer from making his best play. Part of the art of declarer's play is to see through such little traps. When the right kind of hand comes along, victory goes to the greater artist.

West led the deuce of hearts, and declarer played the king from dummy. East unhesitatingly dropped the queen of hearts.

Declarer had been planning to lead the jack of spades from dummy and let it ride if East played low. If the finesse worked, well and good. If it lost, only one trump would remain out and South could later draw that trump with the ace. The preliminary finesse with the jack would be a safety play.

When East dropped the queen of hearts South had second thoughts about his safety play. He didn't want to lose a finesse to a singleton trump honor and then have East ruff the second round of hearts with his remaining trump.

Declarer led the jack of spades from dummy, and East calmly played low. South was ered and then played the ace. East accepted two trump tricks and his partner's congratulations. South should have examined the first trick more closely. If East's queen of hearts was really a singleton, West had started with 10-9-8-7-2 of hearts. Would West really lead the deuce from this combination? Clearly, something fishy was going on in hearts. If South had a good nose for fish he would see that East was trying to discourage him from making the safety play in trumps.

Problem-Solving Kit Outlined By Do-It-Yourself Believer

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My letter is a complete Do-It-Yourself Problem Solving Kit which would put you out of business overnight, so of course it will land in the wastebasket. I am going to mail it anyhow. All problems can be divided into four categories.

(1) Problems that must be talked over with a psychiatrist, a clergyman, a doctor, an astrologer, your hairdresser or barber, the laundress, a tea-leaf reader, a plumber or a tool and die maker.

(2) Problems that call for action. You must marry it, divorce it, wash it, bury it, sell it or housebreak it.

(3) The problem for which there is no solution, so you must forget it.

Classic examples of this last type are: Domineering mother-in-law, loud-mouthed sister-in-law, father-in-law who thinks he is Jack Benny, a husband who snores.

If your readers knew these facts they would not need you ever again. But please don't stop writing, Annie, your column is my laugh for the day. — Illinois

Dear Ill: Thanks for writing. Your letter was mine.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Three years ago dad died leaving my mother, my three brothers and me. I was so broken up over dad's death that I went to live with my grandparents for a year just to get away from the house that held so many memories. I was 14 at the time.

When I returned home I discovered my mother had fallen for a bum and was spending every possible minute with him. My brothers and I hate this man and mom knows it. When he got hauled off to jail six months ago, mom said he would never enter our home again.

Three months ago he came back and is now living with us. Mom says we have to respect him because he is her choice. How can children respect a guy who has a record for burglary and is living with a woman he is not married to?

It is sad when a teen-age girl has to write such a letter about her mother, and I am sorry, but I need your advice. Should I go live with grandparents and have some peace of mind? — Tired

Dear Tired: Yes, go live with your grandparents. If there is any chance that they can take your brothers, too, I recommend that they go also, provided they feel as you do about this shameful mess.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I was amused by the letter from the woman who had two daughters-in-law — one a neat housekeeper (like herself) and the other a sloppy housekeeper. My mother used to say she could always tell who was boss by the looks of the house. According to Mom, when the wife is boss, the house is neat and orderly. When the man is boss, the house is messy and disorganized.

Miss Wimberger

I believe this is true. Do you? — Regular Reader

Dear Reg: No. The man can be boss, but if his wife is a slob the place will look like it, since it is up to her to do-the housekeeping.

Tell Betrothal Of Daughter

MENASHA — Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wimberger, 933 Plank Road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Donald Thomas Van Lankvelt. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Van Lankvelt, 1414 W. Kimberly Ave., Kimberly.

Miss Wimberger is employed by George Banta Co., Inc. Mr. Van Lankvelt is with Kimberly-Clark Corp., Kimberly.

Push Pay Incentive for Vocational Teachers

Knowles Will Reinroduce Plan Intended to Lure Trades Instructors as Separate Bill

MADISON — Gov. Warren P. Knowles' much-delayed salary incentive bill is being prepared for independent entry into the state Legislature.

Removed from his state budget proposal, the $500,000 plan has been pared to $250,000 but still is aimed at recruiting teachers for vocational-technical education and at raising teacher standards in the growing field.

The plan now envisions state aids for a major share of teachers' salaries, but has abandoned a sliding scale formula which aroused opposition from some vocational and local education officials.

Separate Bill
In the new plan, when submitted as a separate bill and not as a part of the budget package, all vocational teachers' salaries of less than $6,000 will be refunded at a support level of 80 per cent by the state.

Between $6,000 and $12,000, all salary costs except for a basic $1,200 will be borne by the state. The community's share of the salary in the range remains constant at $1,200.

Above $12,000 annual salary, the state will pay 90 per cent of all salary expenditures — but only five teachers in the state now earn salaries in that highest range.

Rate of Increase

Aids increased 1 per cent every $100 under the program so that a teacher earning $7,800 would receive state funds as 78 per cent of his salary and a teacher making $8,900 a year would receive 89 per cent of his yearly income from the state.

Maximum support under that program, estimated to cost $500,000, would have been 99 per cent at $9,900 a year. All pay above that amount would again be covered by the community in the original program.

Aim of the program is to elevate teachers' salaries in local vocational schools to reflect the higher educational status of the vocational institutions. But the program has received some strong opposition from local educational officials, who claim that such a salary incentive program would force them to raise the pay of secondary teachers as well, now paid at about the same level as vocational instructors in many communities.

Fremont Street Project Removed From Schedule

Widening of one block of E. Fremont Street in the vicinity of St. Elizabeth Hospital should be taken off Appleton's 1967 street construction schedule, in the opinion of the city council's street and sanitation committee.

Acting on the recommendation of Aids. Arthur Hoolihan (11th) and James Bethke (9th), the committee recommended the project between S. Oneida and Monroe streets be taken off the schedule and asked the public safety committee to put in parking restrictions.

Hoolihan told the committee that several private property owners in the block objected to paying special assessments for the project which would benefit only business establishments located on the Oneida-Fremont intersection.

Seniors Vote to Sing 'Lord's Prayer' at Rite

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The graduating class of Overlea High School has voted to include the Lord's Prayer set to music in its commencement exercises in June.

The vote, 394 to 21 by secret ballot, was taken after an unidentified student voiced his opposition because of the Supreme Court ruling banning compulsory prayers in public schools.

John F. Cassidy, school principal, said recently he felt singing the Lord's Prayer as a hymn did not constitute prayer in the school.

Even Rock n' Roll on WLFM

Lawrence Station Sets Weekend for Trivia

The second annual Lawrence University Trivia Contest will be Friday to Monday, according to WLFM, campus radio station which sponsors the event. The station will remain on the air continuously from 11 p.m. Friday night until 1 a.m. Sunday.

After each musical selection a question will be asked about old television, radio, movies, comic books, or rock and roll. Listeners may phone in answers and receive trivia points for each correct answer.

Any group may enter by calling the station during the contest. In addition to its regular programming from 1:15 to 11 p.m. the station will feature a rock and roll format for the first time on the FM portion of its operation.

Other features of trivia week-end include a stickball game on Union Hill on the Lawrence campus between the WLFM Wise Guys and the WDUZ All American Good Guys, remote broadcasts from locations all over the Fox Cities, and a dance for Lawrence students Saturday night.

Tom Kendall, Evanston, Ill., WLFM's program manager, said that the purpose of the contest is to demonstrate that an educational radio station can be fun. The station ordinarily broadcasts classical music, jazz and folk music, news, sports, and educational features on its FM segment at 91.1 m.c. and rock and roll to its on-campus closed-circuit AM audience. This will be the first time that the 600,000 people in the WLFM listening area will have the

County Police Investigate Three Area Burglaries

Outagamie County authorities were continuing investigation into three burglaries reported Tuesday from scattered parts of the county.

A 14-foot boat, valued at about $330 was reported taken from the Badger Boat Corp. warehouse near Black Creek. Although the boat was inside the warehouse, the door had a defective lock, investigators said. The boat was believed taken sometime between Saturday and Monday afternoon.

A telephone was believed to be the only thing missing following a burglary at a building at Calnin and Goss gravel pit near French Road and Broadway Drive in the Town of Grand Chute. Although a gasoline pump lock was smashed, there did not appear to be any fuel missing, investigators said.

About $100 in cash and an undetermined amount of change was taken during a burglary at Structo, Inc., on County Trunk BB, west of Appleton. Investigators said entry was gained by smashing a side window.

STOP RUSTY WATER

SAVE 25¢ ON MORTON PELLENS

If you own a water softener, and still find ugly red rust stains on your bathtub, sinks and other fixtures, you've got rusty water. Now, stop rusty water with Morton Salt Pellens.

Here's how: Morton Pellens are a totally new pellet type water softener salt for recharging water softeners where iron oxide or rust is in the water. Pellens contain an iron fluidizing agent. It dissolves the iron or rust accumulation and washes it down the drain when the water softener is recharged. Pellens are used like regular water softener salt.

We care

Good potato, but we won't use it

This is a NO. 1 grade potato. But we won't use it for Jane Parker Potato Chips because it measures more than 4 inches in diameter. We have minimum and maximum sizes to insure the best chips...the best eating. But size isn't the only thing we're fussy about. We'll use only certain varieties of potatoes. There are 20 or more varieties we wouldn't think of using...they just don't make good chips. We're careful about potato sugar content. It must be low to produce chips of uniform color. We're fussy too about crispness, thickness and lots of other things. This may seem like an awful lot of fussing, but that's the way we are about all Jane Parker products...about all the products we make. When you think about it, shouldn't fussy A&P be your store?

Varied Time of Dosage Due to Medicine's Aim

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Why are different pills prescribed for specific parts of the day, as one in the morning, one after meals, before meals, four times a day, before bedtime, etc. Does the pill color or container (capsule, etc.) have any significance? — R.J.S.

There are lots of reasons. I'll give you some of the more significant ones.

It depends on what medicine is intended to do: how rapidly or slowly it absorbs; whether it tends to irritate the stomach lining; sometimes whether its nature is changed by stomach juices.

Long-acting drugs are usually taken morning and evening. Some antibiotics, taken orally, maintain their action so that taken every six hours they provide steady effect without a gap.

Some appetite-depressing drugs are taken in the morning only, since later in the day the effect may linger and cause wakefulness at night.

Drugs to calm the digestive tract are commonly given before meals but drugs to counteract excessive acidity (as for an ulcer patient) are usually taken an hour or so after eating.

Some medications may be irritating to the stomach lining and so are taken after a meal when the stomach, being full, is protected by the presence of food.

It is obvious why sleeping pills are taken in the evening, but with other medications, such as digitalis, which may be taken only once a day, a physician specifies a fixed time of day, perhaps at breakfast, the purpose being to establish a daily habit so the patient won't forget, or may not remember for certain whether he has had a pill. This is particularly true of birth control pills.

Colors, shapes and designs are applied by manufacturers to make medications readily identifiable, and the shape may signify a difference in strength or amount. Dosage in some cases may be imprinted. Some pills are scored so they may be easily cut, or broken into a fractional dose.

Capsules at times contain pellets of the medicine with coatings of differing thickness, so some are absorbed quickly, others slowly, thus spreading the effect over a longer time.

Dear Dr. Molner: My husband and I both suffer leg cramps during the night. How should we cope with them? Should we bring our leg up and rub the muscle to relax it, or just keep the leg stiff until the pain goes away? — Mrs. R.R.

Changing position, including getting up and walking, is usually better — but there are various methods which often can prevent or lessen leg and foot cramps. Why don't you write for my booklet, "How to Stop Leg Cramps and Foot Pains"? Send 20 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope for a copy.

Dear Dr. Molner: My mother-in-law claims that pork chops that are breaded and fried are well done in 20 to 30 minutes. I say it takes 1½ to 2 hours to get rid of the danger of trichinosis. Two people in her family have bleeding gums, and also miss work because of vomiting and diarrhea. — B.F.

Twenty to 30 minutes sounds very meager. However, the thickness of the meat is important. To protect against trichinosis, pork should be thoroughly cooked all the way through — it should be gray, never pink. Chops would not take an hour and a half, however.

I doubt if the bleeding gums are related to trichinosis. Vomiting and diarrhea can be symptoms.

Note to L.B.: No, you are wrong. Syphilis can be completely cured, and in that case will not reappear in future generations.

To learn the major categories of prostate trouble — symptoms; treatment; how to speed recovery — write to Dr. Molner in care of The Post-Crescent for his booklet, "The Pesky Prostate," enclosing 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to cover cost of printing and handling. ## War for Pilots

Hours of Boredom, Seconds of Panic

ABOARD USS ENTERPRISE (AP) — The air war over North Vietnam is "hours of boredom and seconds of sheer panic," says one pilot. It brings out a rare mesh of the physical and mental in the naval pilot.

The high-performance A4 Skyhawks, F4 Phantoms, A6 Intruders and RA5 Vigilantes on the deck of the Enterprise compare with speeding bullets. Instruments tell the pilot where the plane is going. The aircraft responds to only the most carefully considered control.

Somehow, the pilot maintains a sense of order as he careens into a rollover where the green of the ground and blue of the sky spin above his canopy.

In Dive
In a dive, the trees may shoot up, or dash out the left side of the eye in favor of a river, a field, and another river — in 10 seconds.

Pulling out of a dive, G forces cram the pilot into his seat. An air-pressure suit keeps all his blood from settling into his boots.

In taking off the pilot is hurled down a catapult, from zero to 150 miles per hour in three seconds and 50 yards. Coming home he lands at 130 m.p.h., trying to catch a cable with a tail hook he cannot see. This goes on in fog, haze, sunshine, darkness, and when the tepid rain of the Tonkin Gulf sweeps over the deck.

Comfortable Quarters
Naval pilots live in twos in air-conditioned quarters. A picture of a girlfriend, or a wife and three children in a park somewhere, is on the wall. There are tape recorders, a small ice box with fresh cheese. A brisk shower and good food are just a few steps down the passageway.

The pilot stays home one day, flies three missions the next. Every time he is committed to a target there are flak, streams of red tracers searching for him like water out of a hose, and surface to air missiles that seem like Roman candles.

Around North Vietnamese railroad yards, power plants and bridges are dug-in SAMs and 37, 57, 85, and 100mm "barrels" or flak guns, manned 24 hours, warned by radar and flushed out with thousands of hand-held machine guns and rifles.

Not Defenseless
"These people are not defenseless," says a veteran of 52 missions. "I swear everyone of them has a gun."

The inventiveness, savvy and training of the pilot, coupled with bales of computerized intelligence, and defensive equipment, make repeated attacks possible.

The three Navy carriers in the Tonkin Gulf exact swift retribution. Bombs, rockets, aircraft and pilot can be mated quickly to respond to fresh intelligence.

The coast is 20 minutes away. The Air Force must come farther, from Thailand. One day the Enterprise alone launched more strikes than the entire Air Force. At the beginning of the war, Navy pilots flew 80 per cent of the sorties. Now they average slightly more than 50 per cent.

Before Flight
Before a strike the pilot is briefed in air intelligence, returns to his ready room where he sips coffee, and talks to squadron mates who will be on the same raid.

In his flight suit the pilot ambles onto the flight deck, chats with other pilots, maybe takes a picture. Every pilot seems to have bushels of pictures of planes. They all look alike, but he stares at each one with reverence.

Often a pilot may take out his maps and explain to deck crews and ordnance men where he goes. This gives a sense of participation to the gruelling day of deck sailors.

150 Missions
The pilot is now familiar with North Vietnam. Most pilots on the Enterprise have from 50 to 150 missions. There are "Happy Valley" and its flak guns near the Mu Gia Pass, the "Cigar," an island, and "The Hour Glass," where two rivers bend toward each other and away again.

Over the target, the radio talk is steady, technical, intended to keep everything coordinated. "Migs up," may come over the radio. And there's encouragement to a buddy: "Run, damn, run!"

Some don't come back. Five hundred Air Force and Navy aircraft have been shot down over North Viet Nam. About 55 Navy Flyers are prisoners. Bailout over water usually means rescue by chopper, but with a direct hit the air-conditioned cockpit explodes in an orange burst.

Fact of Death
"You try not to think about it. You may feel a little burble inside when someone is smoked (hit), but no one will say anything," says a senior pilot. "No one likes the idea. It's a fact of life. Or a fact of death."

Officially, the losses are tolerable. Whatever, the pilots keep going back. They argue in the ready room for extra missions, always aware of the danger.

Why do they fly? Glamour, the challenge of aviation, or "I like the sunsets," are reasons given by younger pilots. They talk of "doing the job in a military sense and not in the spirit of wars past. However, some do say the war must be fought here, not later, closer to home."

Older pilots admire the young ones. "I'm a professional. It's my life," one said. "They don't have to stay, but they do. They do a good job."

Milk Federation Counters Claim Of Disunity

Members in Accord For Higher Prices, Import Restrictions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Milk Producers Federation has questioned Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman's recent complaint of "great disunity" among dairy farmer groups regarding milk programs.

Freeman made this comment in talking before Midwestern farm groups two weeks ago. But the federation, an organization of dairy cooperatives throughout the country, wrote Freeman declaring there is "no disunity" among dairy farm organizations.

Freeman was speaking of conflicting proposals for dealing with milk price and supply stabilization programs. Most of the dairy cooperatives and dairy farmers affiliated with the federation agree, Freeman was told, on the need for higher milk prices, tighter controls of imports of dairy products and the use, if possible, of government payments to supplement dairymen's income.

Records show considerable differences of opinion between the federation and some general farm organizations which seek to speak on dairy as well as other commodity problems affecting agriculture.

The American Farm Bureau Federation, for example, opposes increases in milk supports and dairy payments. But the National Farmers Union favors payments and also seeks higher supports, as does the National Grange.

Stanley Cup Brought Back to Maple Leafs; Sawchuk Hero in Win

TORONTO (AP) — Terry Sawchuk, veteran 37-year-old goalie who was benched, vindicated himself and brought the Stanley Cup back to the Toronto Maple Leafs.

It was Sawchuk's inspired goal tending that was the key to Toronto's 3-1 victory over the Montreal Canadiens Tuesday night that gave the Leafs the coveted Cup, symbolic of world hockey supremacy.

Toronto won the best-of-7 final National Hockey League playoff series, four games to two, and ended Montreal's two-year reign as Cup champions. The Leafs had won the Cup three straight years before Montreal took it in 1965.

Sawchuk, who was benched after Montreal won the first game of the series, was replaced by another veteran goalie, 42-year-old Johnny Bower, who starred as the Leafs won the next two games.

Pre-Game Warmup
Sawchuk got a second chance when Bower injured his thigh muscle in the pre-game warmup before the fourth game. Montreal beat him again to even the series. When Bower still was unable to start the fifth game, Sawchuk was given another chance and he rose to the occasion as the Leafs won 4-1 on Montreal ice.

He was superb against the Canadiens Tuesday night and the crowd of 15,977 gave him a standing ovation when the game ended.

"He came up with the key saves," said Jean Beliveau, the Montreal captain. "There were three or four shots early in the game you could usually count on as goals."

Joe Blake, the Montreal coach, added: "The Toronto goaltending in the last two games was exceptional." Sawchuk made 40 saves. He stopped what seemed sure Montreal goals. He robbed Beliveau twice on close-in shots and stopped John Ferguson three times. He made another sensational shot on Bobby Rousseau's slapshot in the second period.

Held 2-0 Lead
The only goal Sawchuk yielded was to Dick Duff at 5:28 of the third period when Toronto held a 2-0 lead on second period goals by Ron Ellis and Jim Pappin.

Gump Worsley, who made 33 saves in the Montreal net, was pulled out in the last minute of play and George Armstrong scored Toronto's last goal into an empty net with only 47 seconds left.

Pappin's goal, which turned out to be the winning one, first was credited to Pete Stenkowski. An official correction was made just before the end of the game.

The victory climaxed a Toronto

Takes Fourth in Men's Class A; Neenah's Gerald Remter Records 898 for Third Spot in Class B

BY JIM HARP

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Five changes were recorded in the top spots of various Bowl-O-Rama divisions at the close of a big night of kegling at the 41 Bowl Tuesday.

A Shawano bowler, Bill Schultz, Jr., took over fourth place in men's Class A with a hefty 899 total.

In Class B, Gerald Remter, Neenah, worked his way into third place with an 898 total.

Other Class B performances saw Harold Schuldes, Green Bay, tie for ninth place and Jack Lloyd, Appleton, took over the No. 10 spot.

Takes Fifth Place
Only one change was recorded in the two women's divisions as Margaret Stingle, Appleton, took over fifth place in Class A with an 847 count.

Top performance in Class B for the women was the 804 by Daisy Uecker, Appleton, which boosted her into the No. 11 spot.

The fifth annual Bowl-O-Rama, sponsored by The Post-Crescent, continues tonight with two full squads of bowlers.

All 36 lanes at the 41 Bowl will be in action for both the 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. squads.

One of the features is a shift of over 90 bowlers brought in by Norm Mompier of the Hortonville Lanes.

Schuldes started his climb into fourth place in Class A by opening with a 2-30 game. He followed with 184, 215 and 182 for an 811 scratch and carried 88 pins handicap.

His 230 game, with 22 handicap for a 252, tied with Richard Quella, Appleton, for the men's squad prize on the 9 p.m. shift.

Quella had a 236 scratch and 16 handicap for a matching 252.

Women's winners on the late shift was Shirley Schultz, Appleton, with a 203 game and 32 handicap for a 235.

Gets 19 Strikes
Remter fashioned 19 strikes in his 770 scratch for the four games as he took over third in Class B. He also won the squad prize on the first shift with a 225 scratch and 32 pins handicap for a 257.

Shirley Seehawer, Appleton, won the women's prize on the first shift with a 228 scratch game and 28 pins handicap for a 256 total. Shirley had a 712 scratch total and 824 with her handicap to place 12th in Class A.

Schuldes tied with Jim Ahrens, Kimberly, for the No. 9 spot in Class B with his 863 series. This included 731 scratch and 132 pins handicap.

Lloyd moved into 10th place in Class B with a 708 scratch and 152 pins handicap for a 860.

Foxes Slated For Twin Bill Here Tonight

The Appleton Foxes and Dubuque will try to play a doubleheader at Goodland Field this evening.

Tuesday's scheduled series opener was postponed because of cold weather.

The Foxes pitchers for tonight's twin bill, which is slated to start at 6 p.m., will be Al Fitzmorris and Frank Chambers.

The four other Midwest League games Tuesday met the same fate as the Foxes-Packers contest — postponement due to cold weather.

MU '5' to Meet Florida State in Classic Opener
MADISON (AP) — Pairings and times for the first games in the annual Milwaukee Basketball Classic Dec. 15 were announced Tuesday at a meeting of the Madison Pen and Mike club.

Marquette, last year's National Invitation Tournament runner-up, will meet Florida State in the opener at 7:30 p.m. Wisconsin, defending Milwaukee classic champion, will play Louisiana State at 9:30 p.m.

John Erickson, Wisconsin basketball coach, drew to select the opposing teams and Al McGuire, Marquette coach, drew for the game times.

Falcons' Patton Goes Into Army
ATLANTA (AP) — George Patton, All-America tackle for Georgia who was signed by the Atlanta Falcons, has gone into the Army for six months.

The hitch probably will cost the rangy defensive specialist a chance to win a job with the Falcons next fall. Patton won't be out of service until Sept. 1, which will cause him to miss more than a month of practice.

"Because of this development, it is likely Patton will spend the 1967 season on the cab squad," General Manager Frank Wall said Tuesday night.

The Falcons' hopes of signing free-agent Jim Taylor, famed Green Bay fullback, also dimmed Tuesday. Wall had planned to meet with Taylor in New Orleans but Taylor didn't show.

The Cardinals' Tim McCarver stretches to score in Tuesday night's game at St. Louis, while Cincinnati catcher Don Pavletich stretches to tag him. Meanwhile, Umpire "Shag" Crawford stretches for a look. He called McCarver safe. The Cards beat the Reds. (AP Wirephoto)

Regan Sparkles in Relief As Dodgers Tip Bucs, 5-3

Carty Homers, Braves Get by Chicago, 3 to 1

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Vulture's feathers remain unruined.

Sandy Koufax, Maury Wills and Tommy Davis are gone but Phil (The Vulture) Regan still is around, reminding the Los Angeles Dodgers of the good old days.

Regan, nicknamed "The Vulture" for the way he swooped down on victories in late-inning relief last year, picked up his first of the season Tuesday night in the Dodgers' 5-3 triumph over Pittsburgh.

It's been almost one full year since Regan lost a game. The last time was May 13, 1966.

appropriately enough, a Friday night. That came at Forbes Field and since then, The Vulture has been flying high.

Won 13 Straight
He won 13 straight last season and Tuesday's victory extended his unbeaten appearance string to .66 games — 53 last season and seven this year.

The Pirates had another shot Tuesday and actually tied the game against him when he relieved starter Claude Osteen with one out in the eighth.

Roberto Clemente singled, delivering Wills, now a Pirate, with the tying run. But Regan pitched out of the jam and held Pittsburgh at bay until the 11th when the Dodgers rallied.

John Roseboro opened with a single and when the Pirates failed to field Jim Hickman's bunt, the Dodgers had runners at first and second. A sacrifice moved the runners up and then Wes Parker, batting for Regan, doubled the two runs home.

Elsewhere in the National League Tuesday night, the New York Mets rallied for two runs in the bottom of the 12th inning and nipped San Francisco 3-2. Bob Gibson shut out Cincinnati on two hits as St. Louis defeated the Reds 5-0. Houston battered Philadelphia 10-3 and Atlanta stopped Chicago 3-1.

Taylor Denies He Has Signed Saints' Pact

GREEN BAY (AP) — Fullback Jim Taylor, enjoying newly-achieved free agent status, said Tuesday "I certainly haven't signed a contract with anyone."

Much more, he added, "It's going to be quite a while, there's no great hurry."

Taylor, whose option with the pro football champion Green Bay Packers ran out Monday, was interviewed by Lee Remmel of the Green Bay Press-Gazette in a phone call to Taylor's home in New Orleans.

Taylor denied a broadcast story out of New Orleans that he had signed a $100,000 contract to play with the New Orleans Saints of the National Football League.

Bill Johnson, Scalia Record 5th ABC Wins

Championship of Masters Tourney to Be Decided Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Lou Scalia of Hollywood, Fla., and Bill Johnson of New Orleans, the only unbeaten finalists in the American Bowling Congress Masters Tournament, clash today in a four-game match which will determine at least one contestant for the climactic championship match tonight.

The loser of the Scalia-Johnson duel drops into the losers bracket where he will compete in a series of matches with other once-beaten contestants for the other berth in championship match.

Scalia and Johnson, dark horses in the original field of 438, ran their records to five straight wins Tuesday.

Edges Schissler
Johnson's most significant victory Tuesday came when he edged Les Schissler of Denver 846 to 832 in four games.

Scalia scored a resounding 962-784 victory over Harry Smith of Redwood City, Calif., and then turned back Ed Lubanski of Detroit 872 to 841.

The losers' bracket at the end of Tuesday's action included Lubanski, Ron Hamlin of Lake Worth, Fla., Mike Totsky of Detroit and Schissler.

Today's first-round losers bracket matches will pit Lubanski against Hamlin and Schissler against Totsky.

Totksy ousted Dick Weber Tuesday night when he whipped the St. Louis ace 833 to 811. Defending champion Bob Strampe of Detroit was eliminated early in the day after a cliff-hanger, 807 to 797, to Bill Tinta of Toledo, Ohio.

Derby Expected to Draw 15 Starters

Damascus Rated the Favorite; Barbs Delight Wins Trial

By BOB COOPER
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — With the last of the dress rehearsals behind them, a field of 15 3-year-olds seemed likely today for the greatest two-minute show in horse racing — Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

If all 15 start, the 1 1/4-mile race will be one of the richest in its 92-year history, grossing $163,700 with the winner's pot totaling $121,200.

Spokesmen from the camps of several probabilities, however, indicate firm decisions won't be made until entry time Thursday morning.

Edith Bancroft's Damascus, winner of the Bay Shore and Wood Memorial, carried the role of probable favorite, with Churchill Downs handicapper

Bill Smith pegging the son of Sword Dancer at 2-1.

Next in line was Louis Rowan's Rukin, the big invader from the West Coast, at 7-2 and Harvey Pelletier's entry of Diplomat Way and Free Tumble at 9-2.

In Three Ties
Successor, last year's juvenile champion from Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Wheatley Stable, was quoted by Smith at 6-1. Successor has yet to get in the winner's circle in three tries this year.

Barbs Delight, winner of Tuesday's one-mile Derby Trial with a clocking only four-fifths of a second off the track record, was listed at 10-1 along with California Derby winner Reason to Hail.

Penne L. Grissom's Dr. Isby was at 12-1 and Proud Clarion, from John Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm, was at 15-1.

The probable field, listed at 30-1, included Ask the Fare, Dawn Glory, Field Master and Balout.

Trainer Lou Cavalieri took Cool Reception out of the Derby line-up after the colt finished second to Barbs Delight by a half-length in the Derby Trial.

"He came out of the race all right, but I don't want any part of it (the Derby). I am passing," Cavalieri said after the trial.

Teen Bowlers To be Feted In Kaukauna

KAUKAUNA — The recreation department-sponsored teen bowling program's annual party and awards program will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Youth Center of the high school.

Patches and awards will be presented the champions of the three leagues. High 2-game series for the year in the Girls League was 378 by Jane Walker who also hit 210 for second high game.

Kay Wurdinger, with 371 had second high series and 205 for third high game. Linda Fritz hit 359 for third in series and 214 for high single game. Sandy Moss was most improved from last year, gaining 27 pins, and Jane Jaeger won the best sport award.

Top five bowlers were Kris Fahrback, with 130 average, Linda Fritz 128, Vicki Weyers 120, Terry Van Hogen 116.76 and Nancy Schaefer 116.17.

In the Boys League, Bill Nagan, with 456, had high 2-game series. Jerry Biese was second, with 448, and Quinn Vanden Heuvel third with 430. He also had second high game of 247.

Marty Diedrich had high single game of 249, and Dan Lemble had the third high game — 245. Most improved was Mark Schneider, gaining 19.62 pins.

Leading averages were Vanden Heuvel 154.97, Joe Pieters 154.39, Francis Hilgenberg 152, Len Hawley 151, Tom Vils 150.61 and Bill Nagan 150.55.

Dennis Rieber, with a 416 series and a 221 game, led the Beginners League in series and second high game. Second high series was 367 by Dan Longinsie and third was 358 by Dan Heraly.

Mike Pomeroy hit 230, for high game, and John Petit 207 for third high game. Neal Fleming was most improved, with 18.81 pins.

Leading averages were posted by Riemer, 142; Carl Haack, 132; Longinsie, 124.76; Pomeroy, 124.4, and Gary Allward, 120.

Unit Seeks Slight Revision in the Sturgeon Laws

Post-Crescent Medium Bureau
MADISON — A slight restriction in the laws governing sturgeon spearing on Lake Winnebago and tributary lakes has been proposed in a legislative bill sponsored by the Fond du Lac County Conservation Alliance.

Under the proposal, a fisherman would be entitled to buy a sturgeon license at the $2.50 fee only if he holds a resident or non-resident fishing license. The rule would not apply to children of 14 and 15 years, who are not now required to be licensed to fish during the ordinary season.

Track, Field Coordinating Committee Re-established

NEW YORK (AP) — Labor mediator Theodore Kheel and his sports arbitration board have obtained agreement on a number of major points from the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union in their long dispute over which group should control amateur athletics in the United States.

One agreement during a meeting Tuesday involved the re-establishment of a coordinating committee for track and field, giving the AAU, NCAA, U.S. Track and Field Federation base. But even he was unnerved by The Vulture. He singled with one out in the 10th but then was thrown out stealing—his first miss after six swipes this season.

Al Ferrara homered for the Dodgers.

Ed Kranepool, who had homered earlier, tripled home the tying run for the Mets in the 12th inning and then pinch hitter John Sullivan's single delivered the winner against San Francisco.

The Giants, who turned in the season's first triple play in the second inning, had taken the lead in the top of the 12th on Willie Mays' two-out single following a leadoff double by Hal Lanier.

Gibson struck out 12 Reds and ran his record to 4-1 as the Cardinals ended a four-game losing streak. It was the second time this season that the ace right-hander has fanned 10 or more batters.

3 Wild Pitches
Mike Shannon drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double in the fifth inning after Jim Maloney had walked three straight batters. Maloney, 1-1, also made three wild pitches, one of which allowed a run to score.

Rico Carty smashed a three-run homer, one of only three hits by the Braves, as Atlanta topped Chicago 3-1. Carty's shot in the second inning followed walks to Mack Jones and Joe Torre by Ferguson Jenkins, 3-1.

Rusty Staub drove in four runs with three hits and Houston rallied for eight runs in the eighth inning and a 10-3 victory over Philadelphia. Bob Aspromonte tagged a three-run homer for the Astros.

Paquette Plans To Enroll at Minnesota in Fall

SUPERIOR (AP) — Francis (Packy) Paquette, a big back with breakaway speed, plans to enroll at the University of Minnesota in the fall, Football Coach Jerry Roesch of Superior High School said Monday.

"I hope Murray Warmath (Minnesota's coach) can find some people to keep ahead of him," said Roesch, the coach who guided the development of Tom McCauley, now a star Wisconsin receiver.

A former Wisconsin high school "Player of the Week," Paquette seemed a sure bet for All-State football honors last fall until a broken foot sidelined him for the season.

In two and one-half games, he scored eight touchdowns.

Rams' Roman Gabriel Files $200,000 Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Quarterback Roman Gabriel, who filed a $200,000 suit against the Los Angeles Rams, the Oakland Raiders and the two professional football leagues, still intends to play for the Rams next season.

Gabriel, a five-year veteran of the Rams of the National Football League, and attorney Edward L. Masry filed the damage suit Tuesday in Superior Court.

"Gabriel will play for the Rams and will play to the best of his ability, as he has in the past," Masry said. "That's what he'll tell you if you talk to him. He'll have no other comment than that."

The Rams and Oakland had no comment on the suit, and the

Pick Fairbanks Sooner Coach

Contract Terms Won't be Settled Until May 11

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Chuck Fairbanks is the soft-spoken, polished boy-next-door, who says with a reassuring smile "everything's gonna be all right." And you believe him.

The 33-year-old former Michigan State player was named head football coach at Oklahoma Tuesday, filling the vacancy left by the death of Jim Mackenzie, 37, Friday.

Solemn and determined, the youthful coach says he endorses most of Mackenzie's philosophies of football, but still makes it known he intends to be his own master.

"I cannot be Jim Mackenzie," he said. "I've got to be myself. Because I believe so strongly in the things in which Jim believed, I may sometimes sound like him, but I'm not going to try to emulate him."

Fairbanks was appointed by University President Dr. George L. Cross, but contract terms won't be settled until after a regents meeting May 11.

Fairbanks served as chief assistant at Arizona State and Houston before coming to Oklahoma with Mackenzie last year.

Magazine Reports 420-Yard Ace

NORWALK, Conn. (AP) — Jack Summers, a 17-year-old better from Oklahoma, has achieved the longest hole-in-one — 420 yards — recorded so far this year by Golf Digest.

The magazine said Monday that Summers, an old hand at aces, used a No. 2 wood for his hole-in-one on the 8th hole on the Lincoln Park West Course in Oklahoma City, March 15.

Summers made two aces last year. On March 7, he used a No. 2 wood for an ace on the 350-yard 11th hole on the Lincoln Park West Course. On April 30, he used a nine iron for a hole-in-one on the 130-yard 14th hole of the Lincoln Park East Course.

Golf Digest has been recording holes-in-one through its Clearing House since 1952. The longest one it ever has recorded was a 444-yarder by Bob Mitera on the 10th hole at Miracle Hill, Omaha, Nebr., on Oct. 7, 1965.

Top Average Bowlers in the 41 Bowl Junior League this season were awarded trophies at a banquet recently. Jim Gregorius and Mary Kay Lippert received the awards and in the background are Lowell Clement, left, secretary of the Appleton Junior Bowling Association, and Bob Schmeltzer, junior howling coach. # Expect Bullets To Pick Dove In NBA Draft

Possible Bidding War Between Two Leagues in Offing

NEW YORK (AP) — Sonny Dove, a 6-foot-8 center from St. John's of New York, was expected to be the first pick of the Baltimore Bullets today in the National Basketball Association's draft of college seniors.

That will be moments after Detroit formally selects Jimmy Walker of Providence, the backcourt star the Pistons signed to a four-year, $250,000 contract Tuesday.

Walker, the nation's collegiate scoring leader last season with an average of 30.4 points per game, chose the Pistons over Indianapolis of the new American Basketball Association, which held its draft last month.

"I thought the NBA was better for my future as the more established league," Walker said, explaining his decision.

Lured Jim Barnes

The ABA, which has lured Jim Barnes to Dallas from Los Angeles of the NBA and almost had Leroy Ellis away from Baltimore, could cause a bidding war with the older NBA which would rival the pro football era before the NFL-AFL merger.

Among the college stars who will be listening to both leagues are Dove, Mel Daniels of New Mexico, Earl Monroe of Winston-Salem State College, Ron Widy of Tennessee, Clem Haskins of Western Kentucky, Walt Frazier of Southern Illinois, Mal Graham of New York University, Wes Bialosuknia of Connecticut and Bob Lloyd of Rutgers.

Frank Scott, agent for many professional athletes, handled the negotiations for Walker. He set a May 1 deadline for bids, but said he had received no firm offer from Mike Storen of Indianapolis.

Following Detroit and Baltimore in today's selections, the order of the draft's first round will be Chicago, Los Angeles, New York, Seattle, San Diego, St. Louis, Cincinnati, San Francisco, Boston and Philadelphia. Seattle and San Diego, new franchises, were partially stocked from Monday's expansion draft. The others pick in reverse order of last season's won-lost records.

Chiefs Down Hortonville

Shiocton Pilfers 14 Bases in 11-3 Little Nine Victory

SHIOCTON — Pounding out 12 base hits and stealing 14 bases, the Shiocton High School baseball team rolled to an 11-3 victory over Hortonville in a Little Nine Conference game here Tuesday.

Vaughn Wilkinson was the hitting star for the Chiefs as he had four hits in as many trips, two singles, a double and triple as he drove in three runs.

Dan Gast pitched the first six innings for the winners and allowed only three hits while striking out six and walking one. Gary Johnson worked the seventh and fanned two while walking one.

Shiocton now has a 1-1 record and will meet Seymour in a non-conference game here Thursday. Hortonville is also 1-1 in the league.

Chiefs Name Don Karisny, Simon Coaches

MANITOWOC — Kaukauna's Bill Simon and Menasha's Don Karisny have been added to the coaching staff of the Manitowoc football Chiefs, by Head Coach Hal Haberman.

Simon, a 3-year-veteran of the Chiefs and former St. Norbert College star, will coach the offensive line. Karisny, also a 3-year veteran with the organization, will be defensive backfield coach. Both will be player-coaches.

Green Bay's Dan Smits has been named the offensive backfield coach.

Hold-over assistant coaches will be Dave Wagner, offensive ends; Dick Ertmann, defensive line; and Doug Brozek, player-coach.

Bergum Named Badger Stroke

MADISON (AP) — University of Wisconsin crew coach Norm Sonju has named a new man to take the key stroke position in the Badgers' first 1967 race next Saturday.

Sonju had named Bill Blakely to the spot, but Blakely became ill during the weekend. Sonju said the new stroke will be senior Steve Bergum.

The Badgers will take on the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Dartmouth in the 2,000 meter Cochrane Cup race on Lake Mendota here Saturday.

McMillan Retires As Active Player

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Milwaukee Braves' shortstop Roy McMillan has retired as an active player, the New York Mets said Tuesday.

The smooth-fielding but light-hitting McMillan underwent a shoulder operation in the off-season.

The Mets said McMillan, 36, would be a special assistant and work with the club's infielders.

Challenges Clay Merchant Ship Crewman, 42, Wants to Show Up Clay

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "He'll do it... I mean he will fight his block knocked off, but he'll do it." That's the way Mrs. James Cobb summed up her reaction Tuesday to a story from Hong Kong that her husband said he was going to apply to the World Boxing Association to fight Cassius Clay.

Cobb, 42, an oiler and mechanic on a merchant marine vessel in port at Hong Kong, was quoted as saying he wanted to show up Clay "for what he is — a man who won't fight for his country and uses religion as an excuse."

Mrs. Cobb said Tuesday that her husband has always been patriotic, sometimes a bit extreme, but always patriotic. Shaking her head in disbelief, Mrs. Cobb said, "He means it — it's not too bright, but he means it."

"My husband is a strong-willed sort. I mean, he believes in his country first and can't stand to see anybody do anything against it."

"You know these draft card burners? Well, he gets so angry about them and says the best thing that anyone could do is to arrest them and sentence them to a term in the Marine Corps."

"Jim was a Marine and he believes pretty strongly in the corps."

Manitowoc Dominates Prep Track and Field Honor Roll

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Jim Huff of Madison West with a leap of 6-foot-6 1/4 inches has bettered the Wisconsin public high school record in the high jump. The record of 6-foot-5 is the only mark bettered or tied so far in the track and field season.

Pat Matzdorf of Sheboygan North and Donn Wiese of Whitefish Bay have equaled the mark with 6-foot-5 leaps.

Greg Gretz of Manitowoc, an All-State football player who will enroll at Wisconsin in the fall, is moving in on the discus record. Gretz had gotten off a heave of 178 feet — only 8 1/2 inches shy of the record.

Manitowoc dominated the weekly track honor roll compiled by Bill Cross of South Milwaukee.

Gretz led in the shot put with a toss of 59-feet-2. Dennis Hoschback led in the two-mile with a time of 10:22 and the 880-yard relay time led the field with a 1:32.6 time. Jim Nickels was first in the 440-yard dash with a time of :50.9.

The Ships' Tom Gass was second to Rhinelander's Jack Audas in the 100-yard dash and also

Lombardi to Be Honored by Alma Mater

NEW YORK (AP) — Coach Vince Lombardi of the Green Bay Packers will be honored Monday by his alma mater, Fordham University.

In recent years, the medal has gone to Francis Cardinal Spellman, Dr. Victor Hess, a Nobel Prize-winning physicist, and Victor A. Belaunde, the Peruvian statesman.

The Rev. Leo McLaughlin, university president, will make the presentation.

2 Fox Cities Area Drivers Win Firsts In FVSCC Event

Two Fox Cities area drivers won first places in the Fox Valley Sports Car Club's "Wiggly Auto Cross" recently.

Hortonville's Keith Dobbertin won the under-1,600 cc class title in a Saab. Second and third, respectively, were Menasha's Dave Huelsbeck and Neenah's Ron Rubsam.

Kaukauna's Lee Schmalz took first place in the 1,600-3,000 cc. class in a TR4. Appleton's Art Last and Neenah's Wayne Gregory were second and third, respectively.

Green Bay drivers took the top three spots in the over-3,000 cc. class, with Harold Van Egeren coming in first.

Alice Patterson Bowls 554 Set In Couples Loop

Alice Patterson slammed a 554 series to pace the latest session of the Trinity Lutheran Couples Bowling League at Sabre Lanes. Her best line — 215 — also topped the circuit.

Dan Schmidt and Roger Timm paced the Tri-City Merchants Couples League, at Sabre Lanes, with scores of 550 and 226, respectively. Mary Vander Linden led the women, with a 504.

Carol Guither Wins Gymnastics Title

Carol Guither captured the all-around title in an Appleton YMCA girls gymnastics intrasquad meet recently.

Miss Guither won firsts in the uneven parallel bars, the side horse vaulting and the tumbling and tied Rose Mary Van Susteren for first in the trampoline event.

Linda Welsch was second in the running for the all-around title. Janet Carlson won on the balance beam, and Pat Weber took top honors in floor exercise.

Senators Wear White Caps, Socks Against A's

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Washington Senators have an answer for the white shoes worn by the Kansas City Athletics. Senators are wearing white caps and socks—but only when they play the A's.

Cleveland Manager Joe Adcock protested Kansas City's white shoes on opening night here, contending they distracted the batter. American League President Joe Cronin didn't agree. The protest wasn't allowed.

Washington took batting and infield practice in their regular dark caps and red and blue stockings. But when they returned to the field for the start of the game they had on the new white hats and had removed the outer stockings, leaving only the white stockings.

"Well, we knew they couldn't protest," said Ken Harrelson of the Senators. "I think it's a good idea. The caps look pretty darn good, I think, and so do the socks."

Alabama Grid Sophomore Hurt Seriously

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Five players were injured in Alabama's football practice Monday as the team prepared for Friday night's intrasquad game ending spring drills.

The most seriously injured was sophomore tackle Don Greeley Jr. The 6-foot-1, 200-pound Greeley underwent surgery Monday night for removal of a blood clot.

His condition was listed as serious, but doctors said he was showing improvement.

It was Greeley's second head injury of the spring drills, but trainer Jim Goostree said the injuries were not related to each other.

Greeley, the son of Col. Don Greeley, the commander of the Pueblo Army Depot in Colorado, had rejoined the squad about a week ago after a mild concussion kept him from practice for a few days.

Then Monday, a knee caught him in the right side of the head during warmup drills and fractured his skull. The blood clot was removed from the other side of his head.

Enter This Puzzle Contest And Win a Grand Prize

BY CAPPY DICK
This is Cappy Dick contest day for boys and girls. It brings to young readers of this column a new opportunity to win a set of 12 Encyclopedia Britannica "True-to-Life Books" about animals, nature and boys and girls around the world.

Five sets of these beautifully illustrated books which have proved to be a big hit with boys and girls in previous Cappy Dick contests will be awarded.

as the national grand prizes in today's competition. Also offered are sets of five miniature tools, each of which really works even though only about one inch long. The tiny scissors move just like a full-size pair; do the miniature shears. A little pair of pliers and a tiny penknife open and close. A miniature screw driver completes the set.

Five sets of these charm-size tools will be given away as local qualifying prizes in today's contest, one to each boy or girl of the Appleton area whose contest entry is one of the five neatest and most original correct ones.

Entries winning qualifying prizes in all the cities where this column is published will be re-examined by the judges to find the five neatest and most original of all. The sets of Encyclopedia Britannica "True-to-Life Books" will be awarded to the boys and girls who prepared those five.

The contest is fun to enter. The first thing to do is black out all the things in the picture above that have names which do not start with "B." Next clip out the picture, paste it on paper and mail in envelope; print your name, age, address and zip number beneath it and decorate it in any neat, original way with paints, crayons, cut-outs or other means. Finally address it to Cappy Dick's "True-to-Life" Contest at the Post-Crescent and mail it before midnight of day after tomorrow.

Winners' names will be published here. Their prizes will be sent to their homes by mail. Judges' decisions will be final. All entries become Cappy Dick's property. None can be returned. TOMORROW: A LETTER-SORTING GAME USING EGG CARTONS!

A Badly Needed Study

In the entire controversy over the rights of the public to a free press, and the right of an individual to a fair trial, there is one basic question which has never been answered. Criticism of some phases of press reporting of pre-trial criminal news by the bar and the judiciary is based on the assumption that a juror who reads or hears about a particular case cannot be impartial in arriving at a verdict on the evidence presented in court.

In making this assumption, and calling for restrictions on crime news reporting on that assumption, the courts are also admitting that there are inadequacies in our system of selecting and screening jurors, and can be accused of casting reflections on the jury system itself. Carrying the assumption to its ultimate conclusion leads to the position that the best juror is one who is totally ignorant of what is transpiring in the world about him, for any knowledge of current social conditions or events may affect his judgment in considering the evidence in a particular case.

There is no concrete proof available

Paint-Up Hint for Appleton

Appleton has thousands of paint-chipped and rusted municipal signs. And with spring cleanup, paint-up programs being encouraged throughout the community — the city might well take its cue.

Ald. John Ayers (12th) introduced a resolution in the Common Council recently which didn't attract much attention but, in effect, covered what might be described as a longstanding void.

Ayers is advocating that all poles, street signs and others erected and maintained by

Buying British Troops for Europe

It has now become clear that not only may British firms bid in competition with American ones for various military contracts, but the United States is committed to spending some $20 million for arms in England.

The reason actually is not to take away jobs from Americans or some deep dark plot to increase our balance of payments gap and drain more gold away from our reserves. The pledge to spend the amount in arms orders in Great Britain is simply an effort to buy the British troops now stationed in Europe.

England's own serious economic problems have led to the determination of its government to withdraw virtually all military forces from "east of the Suez." But it has meant more than that. The British Army of the Rhine is composed of 55,000 troops. Unless the United States and West Germany could help her offset the costs of maintaining this force, England was simply going to bring the boys home. Germany has also promised to increase military and commercial purchases in England to a total of $126 million. So now the United States and West Germany will pay for all except $28 million of maintaining that British Army of the Rhine. The involved procedure takes into account the $56 million which the United States spends to keep American

Russian Technology Conquering Forbidding, Frozen Siberia

WASHINGTON — To generations of Russians, the word "Siber," or Siberia, had a dreadful ring.

Under tsar and Bolshevik alike, Russia's vast eastern territory became synonymous with exile, death, and desolation. Even today, Siberia has a population of only 23,558,000, though it covers an area as big as the United States and Mexico combined.

A National Geographic writer-photographer, Dean Conger, recently journeyed 25,000 miles through Siberia. He comments, "Russians think of it much as Americans used to think of their West."

Wilderness Being Tamed

"But the Russian frontierland, like its American counterpart before it, is being infiltrated by modernity," Mr. Conger adds. "Tomorrow's techniques modify the wilderness."

An article by Mr. Conger, "Siberia, Russia's Frozen Frontier," appears in the March issue of National Geographic. Illustrations include 47 extraordinary color photographs by Mr. Conger. The article is supplemented by a new National Geographic World Atlas map, "Eastern Soviet Union."

Mr. Conger describes a trip to a remote community in northeast Siberia: "The flight took us over low mountains and hills and forested valleys, all part of the monotonous taiga, boggy woodland, covering the heart of Siberia. At last, at three in the afternoon, just as the setting sun spread a warm glow across the cold land, we came down at Oymyakon, the coldest town in the world.

96 Degrees Below

"Home of 3,500 people, Oymyakon exists primarily to support an immense animal farm. It is the only community in the world where a temperature of 96 degrees F. has been recorded."

Oymyakon, a town that proudly regards itself as the "Pole of Cold," breeds raindeer, horses, cows, and silver foxes.

In Siberian towns as far north as Oymyakon, the summer sun does not disappear until late at night; it reappears at 1 a.m. Writes Mr. Conger: "My own observation is that people figuratively hibernate in winter . . . and live fully, almost without sleep, during the summer nights."

"Close to Heaven"

The National Geographic visitor found warm hospitality in frozen Siberia. He became friendly with a wiry lumberjack who lives with his wife and two children in a modest log home in wilderness near Lake Baykal, the world's deepest lake.

Mr. Conger asked the lumberman why he had come to Siberia. "I was born here," the man explained. "But you, too, seem fond of Siberia."

"I've met fine people here," Mr. Conger replied.

"And that is another answer to your question," the lumberman said. "That is why we stay in Siberia. And if you like hunting and fishing as much as I do, this place is as close to heaven as you are likely to get. I'm proud to be a Siberian."

that prior knowledge of certain facts about a particular case affects a juror's ability to arrive at an impartial judgment on the evidence before him. A few studies have been conducted on this subject, but only under theoretical conditions. In none of the cases where the courts have overturned verdicts on the basis that press reporting denied the defendant a fair trial has a study been made of the jurors themselves or their reasoning in arriving at a decision.

In these circumstances newspaper publishers and editors applauded vigorously last week when The Chicago Tribune announced that the McCormick Trust was contributing $150,000 to finance an objective and impartial study on this question. The study is expected to be initiated promptly by the American Newspaper Publishers Association Foundation.

Unchallenged evidence is badly needed on this question which goes to the roots of the jury system in the United States. We would respectfully submit to the bar and the judiciary that they withhold further attempts to impose restrictions on press reporting of criminal cases until this evidence is in.

troops stationed in England and those redeployed in England from France after the close out of the NATO headquarters in Paris.

Senator Mike Mansfield has introduced a resolution in the Senate calling for a "substantial" reduction in American forces stationed in Europe. He considers something like the withdrawal of four divisions as substantial. But the Administration is firmly opposed to the move and proposes at this time to reduce American forces in Europe by only about 35,000 men. However, the continued increase in American troop needs in Vietnam has caused some observers to speculate that the United States will either have to redeploy more European-stationed troops to Asia or step up the draft and reserve calls in the United States.

The encouragement to England to maintain its troop strength in Europe, at the cost to the United States in balance of payments and military contracts may be the first sign that the Johnson Administration is indeed considering such redeployment. The political implications of calling up reserve units or national guards, after Secretary McNamara's often issued statements that there is no need, could be more damaging with an election coming up than the less noticeable redeployment of troops.

The Soviet Union's largest autonomous republic, Yakutsk A.S.S.R. in Siberia, is headed by a woman, Mrs. Aleksandra Ovchinnikova. She presides as Madame President over a region four times the size of Texas. A well-educated woman, she descends from nomadic tribesmen and was born of poor cattle breeders; her handsome features are Mongoloid.

Mr. Conger comments, "In Yakutsk, as in other republics that reflect ethnic divisions, the people take pride in their racial and linguistic individuality."

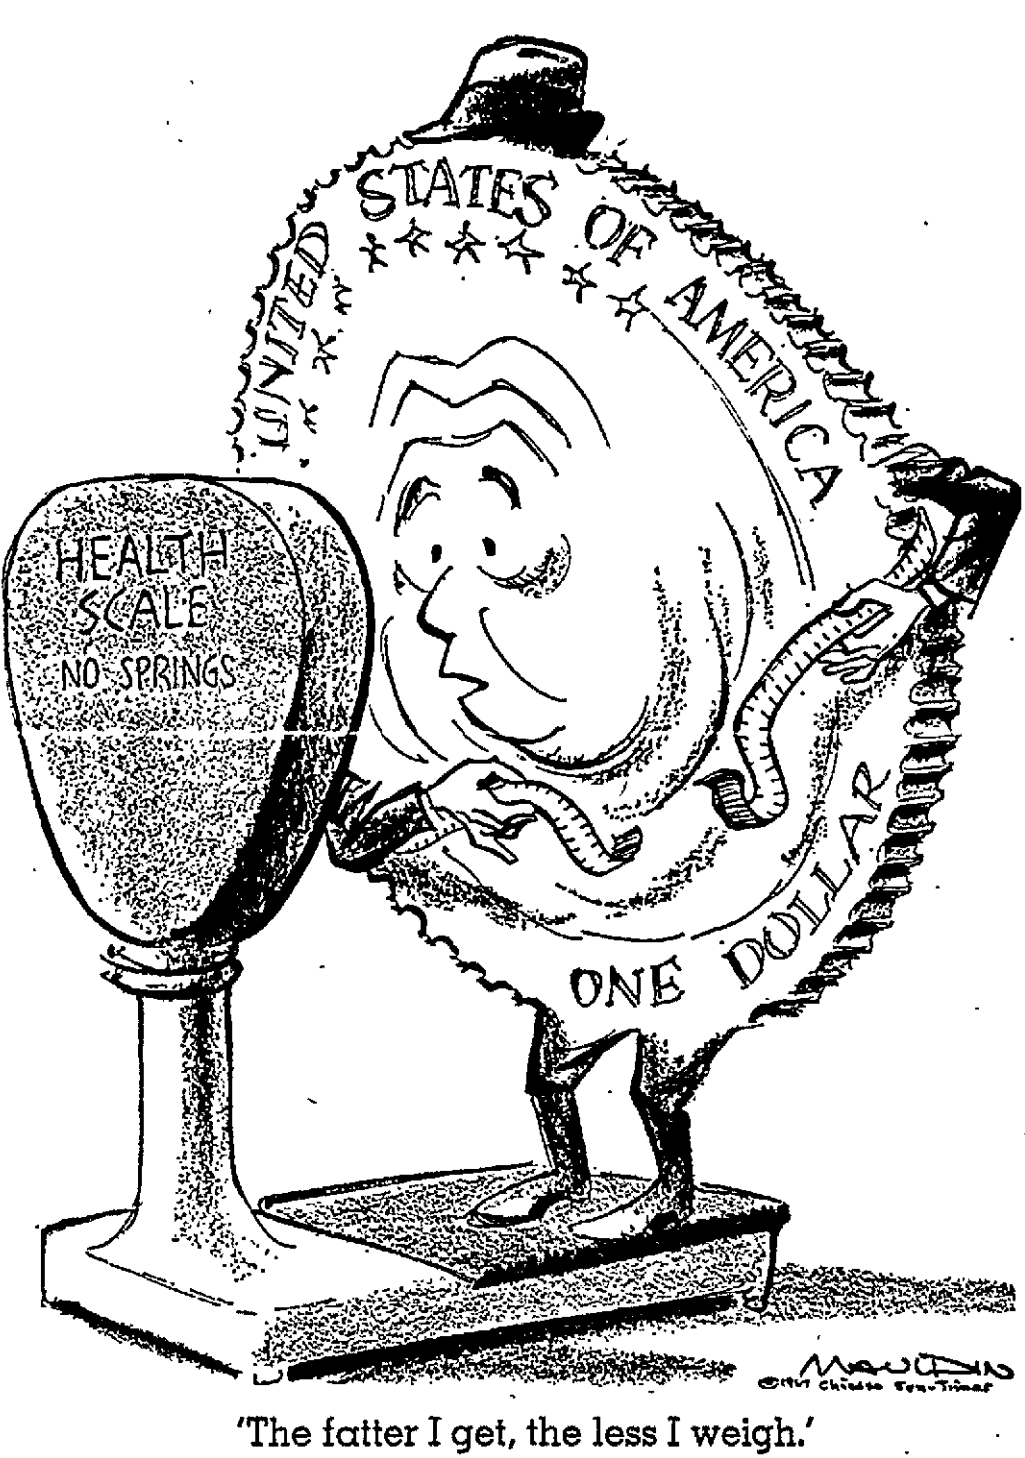

Most Siberians are endlessly concerned with the weather. Mr. Conger was walking down a Yakutsk street one day when a passerby shouted, "Watch your nose!" The American's interpreter-guide stared, then exclaimed, "Your nose is white! Rub it! It's freezing!"

In Yakutsk and other Siberian cities, winter brings an astonishing phenomenon — heavy fog in temperatures far below freezing. The vapor, however, is "human-habitation fog" caused by exhalations of people, their homes and buildings, their animals, and machines. Everywhere the blue fog softens the scene, blurring every detail, dimming every color.

Transportation Hub

Busy Irkutsk, on Lake Baykal, is the "Chicago" of Siberia. Wherever Mr. Conger wanted to go, he seemingly had to leave from Irkutsk to get there. He went through the city eight times.

Irkutsk's 400,000 residents enjoy a lively cultural life,

Taylor Writes

Kennedys Adept at Using Other People's Money; It's the Taxpayers'

BY HENRY J. TAYLOR

The Senate committee report cites Sen. Thomas J. Dodd's use of other people's money. Senator Dodd is a poor man. What about the very rich?

Taylor

The most fascinating economic subject in the United States today is the Kennedy family — and somebody else's money.

It has all the earmarks of the encircling sieges made famous by Louis XIV.

Bobby, speaking so often of the poor, swooped down on the people's New York Post Office like an Apache brave counting scalps and disrupted this utility for four months by demanding super-space there, it being free. That bite, with the reconstruction, was on a scale hitherto unknown. Then Bobby charges us luckless serfs for his chosen rugs, furniture, fixtures, and trappings. This writer, at least, finds it especially galling when the very rich — silently, oh, so silently — spend our money when they should spend their own.

Junior New York Senator

with theaters, a concert hall, and a circus. The city prides itself on a university, several technical institutes, and modern factories. Neon signs flash along the streets.

Present-day Siberia is emerging as a land of incalculable wealth, a land that challenges Russian energy and vision. Siberia has enormous mineral deposits. Its timber resources are greater than any other nation's. A hydroelectric project on the Angara River, the outlet of Lake Baykal, is the world's largest.

Near Novosibirsk, Russia's largest city east of the Urals, there is an extraordinary new community, Akademgorodok, or Science Town. Here are 20 separate scientific establishments concerned with nuclear physics, chemistry, biology, geology, and economics. Says Mr. Conger: "The city resulted from the need to realize the potential of Siberia — its rivers, forests, and resources under the ground."

Kennedy keeps the largest staff on the public payroll of any Senator in Washington, according to the Senate Secretary's official report. And the hoard is under a lead-off payroll at $23,769 (taxpayers' money) a year.

THEY'RE BAD RISK

Those who sit on a Matter-horn of parental money are a bad risk for the taxpayers. They easily forget from whom the money comes, and the current Kennedy generation got off to an early start.

In fact, apparently one reason intimate friend Paul B. Fay Jr., whom President Kennedy appointed Under Secretary of the Navy, now describes himself as being in the family doghouse is due to the same subject: money.

In Fay's innocent book, "The Pleasure of His Company," page 10, Fay forthrightly quotes father Joseph P. Kennedy a few years ago at Palm Beach: "I don't know what's going to happen to this family when I die. There is no one in the entire family, except Joan and Teddy, who is living within their means. No one appears to have the slightest concern for how much money they spend." It was somebody else's money.

Well, Teddy, too, proves to be quite a hit-man himself. He has announced a five-town kindergarten program centered in Waltham, Mass., that rivals an Arab fantasia. And, yes, it involves somebody else's money.

This comes fresh on the heels of the publicized Donnybrook at nearby Cambridge when the family put public subscriptions into a Harvard Branch and got the university to rename it the John F. Kennedy School of Government, packing the 11-man governing committee with four hard-core Kennedy associates and six friends of the family.

In Massachusetts the taxpayers' yearly cost is approximately $550 per child in the higher elementary and secondary public schools.

Nationally, the privately operated kindergartens, employing college-trained teachers, charge about the same as this for the 10-month term. The cost means around $83,000 for 150 children.

A neat $222,642 of the Federal taxpayers' money, us luckless serfs, will be siphoned there by (brother-in-law) Sargent Shriver's Office of Economic Opportunity under a Head Start Self-Help, Inc., kindergarten splurge for 150 kiddies.

The bite on the Federal taxpayers is $1,484.28 per child.

LUSH DYNASTY

The utterly inexplicable excess of this $222,642 over the average private kindergarten costs exceeds $139,000 for only these 150 children, and Shriver, showing the deleterious aspects of the lush dynasty, has staked out heaven knows how many Waltham farragoes across the country.

No amount of criticism, no revelation — nothing — seems to faze these people.

Shriver's Job Corps flew 13,602 enrollees home for Christmas in 1965 at a colossal cost in spite of public protests, and then flew home 8,546 in 1966 all over again.

Military men and women stationed in the United States who were lucky enough to get Christmas leave had to buy their own plane, train or bus tickets out of their service pay — which is often less than that of the Job Corps enrollees. And the Job Corps ones didn't have to stand in line like other Americans must. They're transported in chartered (taxpayers') planes.

No wonder every place I go across our country I find a feeling of confusion, anxiety, and impatience — a nagging feeling that, after all, our country's sacrifices have really got it nowhere.

Wisconsin Report
Code of Ethics Bill
Raises Questions of Its Enforceability

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — The bill presented by the Republican majority leadership in the legislature to write into a law a code of ethics for all state officials and employees, including legislators, will be considered by realists on two counts:

Wyngaard

Does it present a fair standard of ethical performance, in accordance with the declared intention of its sponsors?

Is it likely to be applied literally, and is it, in fact, enforceable?

A first reaction of informed statehouse observers is likely to be that it is a fair summation of the ethical problem and an outline of expected performance by the men and women chosen to hold governmental positions.

But the first reaction about the prospects for application or enforcement is likely to be dubious in the extreme.

WHAT PEOPLE THINK

The list of caveats and prohibitions suggested in the Debit-Leonard - McKay bill probably represents what most people expect of their public servants and in the ideal society should not be required to be written out in the cold type of the state's statutes.

Nor is it likely to disturb the vast majority of fulltime and professional employees of the state government, except as they may flinch a little at the idea that somebody believes it necessary to pinpoint the elementary rules of conduct in a formal legislative enactment.

But "officials," as the Republican caucus press release makes clear, is intended to include everyone, from the governor down through the freshman assemblyman sitting in the back row of his chamber.

These are not fulltime or professional public employees. They are for the most part men engaged in other private business, who happen also to be elected representatives, spending perhaps up to half of their time for a part of each year on their official duties.

MOST RECOGNIZE ETHICS

Most of the members of this legislature, or any legislature that this reporter has observed over a considerable period, surely acknowledged the rules of conduct set out in this proposed code. Who is there to deny that accepting gifts from lobbyists or from persons having business dealings with the state over which he may have some influence is improper for a legislator?

But what of the suggested prohibition about a private interest in public business? The proposal is to prohibit the legislator from "voting for any legislation in which he has a private interest unless he first publicly discloses the nature and extent of his interests?"

Is that enforceable, even in a most generous interpretation, under a system that assumes that each legislator typically has another source of income and another employment?

Do the authors of this proposal seriously believe that a man who is in the business of selling motor fuel at home shall declare his interest in resisting a gasoline tax increase bill. Or the lawyer to explain that he has a client involved in a matter before the legislature. Or the man involved in highway legislation to put on the record his part interest in a trucking company. Or a retired civil servant to acknowledge the reasons for his concern about a pension bill?

MUCH MATERIAL LIKELY

If so, the houses are destined to hear an abundance of autobiographical material during their future deliberations.

Perhaps the only way to avoid literal conflicts of interest, given the complexity of modern public affairs, is to limit the right to set in the legislature to men who have no other economic concerns, which will mean full-time salaries. That would sharply modify also the idea of representative government. The suggested code of ethics is perhaps most important as a guide and an ideal and ought not to be regarded as humanly attainable in all respects.

Strictly Personal

There's Parallel in Irish and the Negro

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Looking out of my office window on St. Patrick's Day, I could see the big parade starting to march through Chicago's Loop — thousands of Irish, with just as many "honorary" Irish marching alongside them.

Harris

Being Irish is a pride and a pleasure in America today — so much so that many people like to claim spurious Irish ancestry. The Irish are an immensely likeable group, and even their defects are warmly human.

Yet it is worth remembering that it has not always been so. In London, when I was born, the Irish were still considered vaguely sub-human, and generally treated as such. They occupied the most menial jobs, and opportunities for advancement were blocked by prejudice, if not by law.

And even in the U.S., until the turn of this century, the Irish were violently discriminated against. "No Irish Need Apply" was a common sign in shop windows in Boston and other Eastern cities for many years. Of all new immigrant groups, the Irish were perhaps the most disdained, feared and shunned by the earlier settlers.

But within a generation or two, in the free atmosphere of a growing and prospering nation, most of this prejudice had dissipated, and today it is only a dim memory that many of the same charges we level against the Negro were once leveled against the Irish.

Yet let us imagine that the Irish had been forced to remain in servitude here; that they had been denied adequate schooling, forbidden to move where they liked, condemned to manual work, and even prohibited from voting. Much as I admire them, I doubt that under such pressing conditions they would have reached a fraction of their present eminence in American life.

What they would have done, I am sure — knowing what we do of the mercurial Irish temperament — is rebel against those conditions as strenuously as they rebelled against British domination in Ireland. They would not have waited a hundred years, as the Negro patiently has, before they erupted in passion, violence, and righteous revolution.

We are alarmed today at the unrest, but instead we should be amazed that there is relatively so little of it. The Negro has been astonishingly patient, docile, hopeful and calm in the face of monumental frustration, cruelty and hypocrisy. He has turned the other cheek often enough to embarrass the apostles of official Christendom, and he is now rebelling because cheekturning has not seemed to work too well.

The Negro has practiced what we have only preached, and now he is beginning to preach what we practice — power. It frightens us to be confronted with our own attitude staring balefully back at us.

Dirksen Wins With Humor, Illustration

Minority Leader Succeeds in Dream Of Being an Actor

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — The 71-year-old senator with the unkempt hair and a doomsday voice that makes Dr. Martin Luther King sound like a jolly comedian wanted to be an actor and went into politics. He has done very well at both.

He doesn't just make fun. He draws pictures, like the time he went after the antipoverty program of his friend and former social companion, President Johnson.

Argument With Red
The senator, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate's Republican leader, said he had heard 700 young men wanted to be trained under the antipoverty program to operate a diaper service.

"That's really getting to the bottom of things," he said. "I'm tempted to say it's time for a change."

He went on Red Skelton's CBS television show to plug his best-selling record album, "Gallant Men," and got into a pre-arranged argument with Skelton on why a chicken crossed the road.

Dirksen insisted on knowing whether it was a free enterprise chicken or a government-supported chicken.

He has banged and pecked and sometimes ruined a Johnson program — as he did the administration's civil rights bill in 1966 — but he has given Johnson 100 per cent support on the war in Vietnam, or practically 100 per cent.

Twice, he left a sick bed in the Walter Reed Army Hospital to fight for Johnson. He did it last March, when his support was crucial, to back the President just before the final vote on the consular treaty which Johnson wanted.

Conduct of War
The Senate approved. He did it again this week when, not fully recovered from pneumonia, he barged into a meeting of the Senate's Republican Policy Committee, which seemed ready to tee off on Johnson's conduct of the war.

When he got through, most of the Republican senators meekly agreed on giving the President "wholehearted support." Dirksen has attacked war protesters and ridiculed the draft-card burners as a bunch of publicity seekers.

He has a simple rule — "Never pound the desk too hard, you may hurt yourself" — which freely translated seems to mean "Don't take yourself too seriously."

Cost of Corn Flakes
Once he stared at a new bust of himself in his office. The bust stared back. "Superb," Dirksen said. The bust said nothing.

He has blamed the administration for the rising cost of corn flakes. He presented a live turkey to the White House with

Cow Pins Farmer To Concrete Wall

Ray Wichman, 67, route 3, Appleton, suffered a hip injury Monday evening when he was pinned to a concrete wall by a cow.

Wichman was taken to Appleton Memorial Hospital by Larry's Ambulance. A family spokesman said today that X-rays are being taken, although there apparently are no broken bones.

Wichman reportedly was helping lead cows onto a truck at his farm when one of the animals pinned him and then stepped on his leg, after knocking him down.

the prediction the ax would fall on Johnson's spending.

Last year he led a successful combination of Republicans and Southern Democrats in killing a proposal both Johnson and organized labor wanted. It would have stopped states from barring the union shop.

He tried but failed to get the Senate to approve a constitutional amendment which, if ever adopted, would have undone the Supreme Court's ban on certain prayers in public schools.

International Crisis
But every time there has been an international crisis Dirksen has been on hand to announce you can't let a president down when there is a war on.

Last year he even tangled with the Republican leader of the House, Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, who charged there had been "shocking mismanagement" of some aspects of the war.

"Who are the shockers?" Dirksen asked.

And this year when Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., a frequent thorn to Johnson, proposed suspension of the bombing in Vietnam, Dirksen was in there pitching for Johnson, who wouldn't suspend the bombing. Johnson couldn't have a better helper, at least on the war.

Ashland Mills Purchased by Canadian Firm

MONTREAL, Que. (AP) — Consolidated Paper Corp., Ltd., announced Monday it has acquired the business and assets of Ashland Paper Mills, Inc., a privately owned American manufacturer of napkins, towels and other tissue products.

R. A. Irwin, president of Consolidated, said in a statement the acquisition was made through the company's American subsidiary, Consolidated Cellulose Products, Inc.

Consolidated announced earlier it has also acquired APW, Inc., a manufacturer of industrial tissue with mills in Vermont.

The management of both firms has been retained and all brand lines will be continued, Irwin said.

Couple Seeks $70,000 Judgment Against City For Alleged Fall in 1944

Attorneys for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schilling, 1116 N. Linwood Drive, are seeking a judgment for $70,000 against the City of Appleton.

The action arises out of a fall and alleged injuries Mrs. Schilling received on June 25, 1944, when walking on College Avenue and crossing Superior Street.

Mrs. Schilling seeks $50,000 for injuries and her husband, $20,000 for loss of companionship, legal fees and other expenses.

Dean of Music at Lawrence Returns From Professional Trips

Dean LaVahn Maesch of the Conservatory of Music at Lawrence University has made a number of professional trips in recent weeks, both as a music educator and a performer.

He recently traveled to St. Louis to be toastmaster at a dinner of the Music Teachers National Association, an organization he once served as president. He also visited Bethany College in Kansas and the University of Redlands in California as an examiner for the National Association of the Schools of Music, to re-evaluate their music departments.

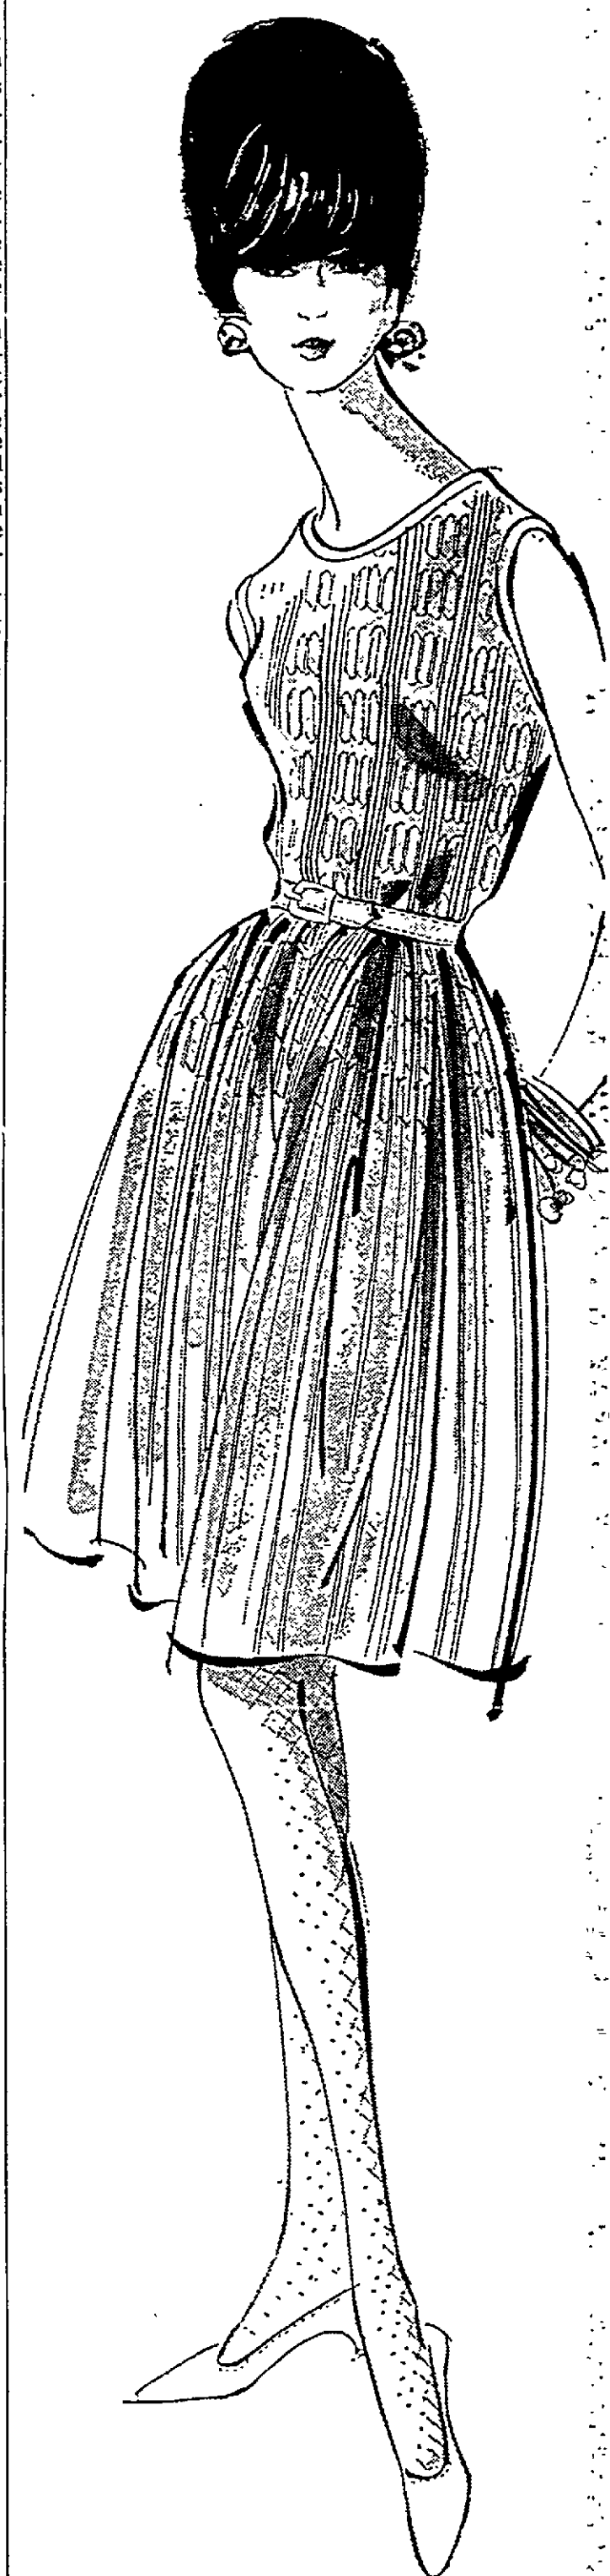

In the last week he has taken the Lawrence Singers, a chamber-sized chorus, to sing at Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, and at Randolph, where they were sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. The Singers will make two Appleton appearances this spring, at 8 p.m. June 1 in Harper Hall and 4:30 p.m. June 10 during commencement week-end festivities.

The city and its insurance carrier took no action on a notice of complaint filed sometime ago. Counsel for the Schillings now seeks a judgment.

The city has 20 days, in which to answer the summons.

Marines Repulse Attack by Reds

was followed with an assault by the two Communist companies, perhaps more than 300 men.

Units from other Marine companies moved in as C47 Dragons, artillery, armed helicopters and fighter-bombers pounded the Communist positions.

The attack was repulsed and by 10 a.m. the fighting appeared to have died down, the spokesman said.

Other Marines reported they occupied Hill 881 South in an assault Tuesday to clear the enemy from that point overlooking infiltration routes from Laos.

In bitter fighting since April 25 in the rugged area, counting the latest casualties, the Marines have lost a total of 116 men killed and 321 wounded. Marines have reported killing 464 Communists.

While the ground fighting raged from the Mekong Delta in the south to South Vietnam's northernmost provinces, U.S. fighter-bombers kept the aerial pressure on North Vietnam. American pilots flew through overcast skies Tuesday, using radar controls and bombing through breaks in the clouds to pound the main rail lines running northeast and northwest from Hanoi to Red China.

Pilot Rescued

A U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchief was downed by ground fire in North Vietnam today but the pilot was pulled from the jungle by a helicopter 36 minutes later.

The U.S. 9th Infantry Division reported killing 181 Viet Cong from a main force battalion in seven hours of heavy fighting Tuesday in Mekong Delta marshland 39 miles southwest of Saigon. It was the biggest battle so far for the division, which arrived in Vietnam last December. Eighteen Americans were killed and 48 wounded in the fighting, the division said.

More than 400 miles to the north, a battalion of South Vietnamese paratroopers supported by armored vehicles clashed with more than 500 Communists five miles northwest of Hue, the former royal capital of Vietnam.

Trap Communists

The South Vietnamese said they trapped the Communists in a loop of the Song Bo River and killed 156 of them in a two-hour battle Tuesday night. Government losses were reported "very light."

The victory was considered a big boost for the Saigon government, since Hue had been uneasy with speculation that some of the 35,000 North Vietnamese troops reported around the demilitarized zone might come down and try to take the city. Last month Communist troops invaded Quang Tri City, north of Hue, and freed 250 prisoners.

Despite the heavy overcast in the north, U.S. pilots flew 104 missions Tuesday, with their key targets the two main North Vietnamese rail lines on which supplies are shipped from Red China to Hanoi. The lines were reported cut in several places.

Pound Rail Yards

Other pilots pounded the big Yen Bai railroad yards 76 miles northwest of Hanoi.

U.S. Air Force F4C Phantom crews from Thailand and South Vietnam flying cover for F105 Thunderchief bombers on their runs in the Hanoi area reported only three sightings of Communist MIG interceptors Tuesday. No contact was reported.

U.S. sources said the American bombing of North Vietnam will be halted during the one-day cease-fire proclaimed by the South Vietnamese government for May 23, Buddha's birthday, unless there are indications Hanoi is taking advantage of the truce to move men and materiel into the South.

Cities Deny Favoritism In Planning

that the state planner had been "arbitrary and capricious" were suggestions that the state planner had been dishonest.

Town areas, which have not been able to become cities, have been refused only because they lack statutory qualifications, Ed Johnson claimed.

If the state planner had acted unjustly, his determinations would have been overturned by courts or by the Legislature, he said. Instead, the planner's actions have been upheld when contested, Johnson told the committee.

"Although portions of these towns do have the characteristics of cities, I doubt if all of their areas qualify," Johnson said. The attempt to become a city is an attempt to keep boundaries intact rather than permit annexation, he claimed.

Steffens agreed that town interests are protecting their own resources in the bill. Part of the Town of Menasha is qualified for city status, he said, but town leaders refuse to split the town to allow that portation to incorporate. They refuse to lose the profitable tax base of the Kimberly-Clark Corp., he charged.

"To say that the director of planning is prejudiced is unfair," he told the committee. Town leaders also suggested that a city-backed unilateral annexation bill in the Legislature would not deny town residents the right to vote. That question he termed a "red herring."

"No one has a vested right to vote in a particular precinct. We are confusing the right to vote with where you vote," he said.

Led by Roland Kampo, chairman of the Town of Menasha, and John Rouse of the Wisconsin Suburban League, town leaders claimed that the bill is a measure designed to rectify problems caused in attempting to use the present incorporation statutes.

Kampo claimed that the Town of Menasha obviously qualifies for city classification because it has a population of more than 8,000 persons and an equalized valuation of $91 million. It offers complete city services and should gain the benefits of city status, he claimed.

Testimonial Dinner Scheduled for Dodd

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd says he's against the idea, but Arthur T. Barbieri, New Haven Democratic town chairman, says he intends to proceed with planning another testimonial dinner for Dodd.

Barbieri said Tuesday night he had informed Dodd that "I am going to run it." The dinner would be a $100-a-plate affair with proceeds to go to Dodd for use in any way he wants.

Barbieri is known in Connecticut as a close political ally of the Democratic senator, whose censure by the Senate was recommended last week by the Senate ethics committee.

After Barbieri announced his plan to arrange the dinner, Dodd issued a statement through an aide in Washington which said he had not known of plans for it.

"Since I have learned of (the plans)," the statement said, "I have asked my friend, Art Barbieri, not to go ahead with them."

"I don't think we'll have any problem," Barbieri said later in the day. "I think he (Dodd) has a great deal of confidence in me and ultimately will let me go ahead."

Dodd is awaiting a Senate vote on the ethics committee recommendation that he be censured for alleged use of funds from previous dinners for personal expense, and purported double billing for certain expenses.

John M. Bailey, national and state Democratic chairman, dinner, said Tuesday the question "could be answered when I knew nothing about plans for

Beatnik First in Race

Presidential Candidate Praises Love, Bananas

NEW YORK (AP) — A delegate with a banana skin stuck on his nose was walking down the aisle of the Village Theater as Louis Abolafia spelled out his campaign platform for the presidency of the United States.

"I want to spread love through art," Abolafia was saying between bites of a banana. "If I become president, I will set up cultural centers throughout the country."

"People's tastes would be improved," he explained. "Eventually love would spread all over the world and wars would become impossible because everybody would love everybody else."

Launching his campaign Tuesday, Abolafia, 25, had the theater alive with a semi-psychedelic East Village happening billed as a "Cosmic Love Convention, a 72-hour Freakathon for Hippies and Saints."

The delegates were met in the lobby by a sign reading: "Help a beatnik in his humble attempt at an honest living. Buy a banana."

Harold Chizman, seated on a mat covered with bananas, said they cost 15 cents apiece but added, "You get three cents back if you return the peel."

Inside, granny-dressed and miniskirted teenyboppers danced to the amplified dissonance of a rock 'n' roll group while projectionists played movies and slides on the ceiling, walls and floor.

"The idea is to have the audience and the band become one in the same," explained Abolafia. "There is no split between performing and looking."

A blonde beating a tambourine ran up the aisle crying "Love, Love, Love!" as Abolafia explained his campaign strategy.

"I am asking supporters to write in my name. Of course, a lot of my supporters are too young to vote, but it's healthy that they should be interested," he said over the din.

"Later we'll have lots more entertainment. We'll have poetry reading and singing and more groups playing. We haven't really gotten warmed up yet," he concluded and strode off to be with his supporters.

Campaign manager Andrew Kent explained outside that his candidate does not really expect to win the presidency.

"However," he added, "it's a sign that Abolafia is emerging from the underground."

Attendant Makes Up for Missing Class on Babies

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — An 18-year-old ambulance attendant, who "missed class" when the subject was delivering babies, received first-hand experience Tuesday.

Thomas Richard Pursley brought a 4-pound, 7-ounce baby into the world in the back of an ambulance only moments before the emergency vehicle was hit broadside by a car.

The teen-ager said he missed a seminar on baby deliveries last week because he was on an emergency call. So he spent Monday night reading that section of an attendant's manual.

The infant boy and his mother were unharmed in the accident. Pursley suffered a knee injury. The ambulance driver received a broken arm.

Children's Forced Labor Camp Found By Pakistan Police

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — A press report today said police have rescued 171 boys from forced labor camps 500 miles south of Rawalpindi and arrested 25 persons who were operating the camps.

The report said the camps in Sukkur and Hala were "designed on the pattern of Nazi concentration camps where the normal practice is to subject inmates to forced labor and keep them as prisoners."

Police are searching for other such camps in West Pakistan as the result of complaints that a number of children have been kidnaped.

with an eighth grade social studies class from Pleasant Hill. When word of the armed men spread through the startled Capitol, Reagan was kept in his office. He finally left by a side door and appeared on the upper Capitol steps just as the Negroes were leaving from the lower steps. They did not seem to be aware of his presence.

'No Reason'

Asked for his reaction, the governor commented that "Americans don't go around carrying guns with the idea they're using them to influence other Americans. There's no reason why on the street today a citizen should be carrying loaded weapons."

He agreed, however, with the group's contention they have the right to bear arms. At present there is no law in California against possessing a loaded, legal gun as long as it isn't concealed.

Because of the confusion and presence of the armed men, the picnic was moved into the governor's newly redecorated office and the youngsters sat on the carpet munching fried chicken.

Negro Official Picked Candidate For Gary Mayor

GARY, Ind. (AP) — A Negro city councilman outpolled the incumbent in Gary's Democratic primary Tuesday in a bid to become the first mayor of his race in Indiana's second largest city.

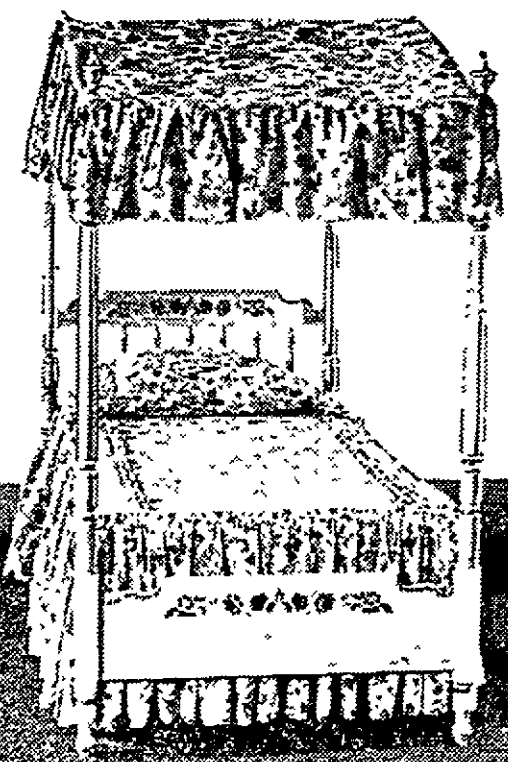

With the vote virtually complete, Councilman Richard Hatcher defeated Mayor A. Martin Katz by an 18,567 to 16,107 margin.

Hatcher carried predominantly Negro precincts by heavy amounts and more Negroes than whites voted in the election. Negroes comprise about 55 per cent of the city's population and about half the number of registered voters.

This heavily industrialized city has not had a Republican mayor since the 1930s.

The non-Negro vote was about evenly divided between Katz and an oil and beer distributor, Bernard Konrady, who polled 12,097 votes. Seven other candidates posted only scattered votes.

Village Board Signs Option For 2.5 Acres

Store President Selects Another Site in Kimberly

KIMBERLY — The village board Monday night signed an option to purchase 2.5 acres of land, bordered by Maes Avenue, Clark Street and Kimberly Avenue, from K-Way Stores Inc. at a price of $38,000.

H. F. Lindell, president of K-Way Stores, informed the village board, he would abandon his plans for construction of a store in the area and develop a new supermarket in the 11-acre shopping center site near the western limits of the village.

Lindell owns Hal's Red Owl, Kaukauna, and indicated construction on the new store would get underway within a few weeks with a completion date set for early fall. A 12,000 square foot building would be constructed. Options were also taken on additional parcels by K-Way Stores Inc. in an effort to work with the village in further development of the site.

Unsure of Use Village officials have not determined what use will be made of the property, but it is adjacent to a railway spur and could be utilized for industrial development purposes, they indicated.

With the moving of the supermarket, plans for improvement to W. Maes Avenue and Clark Street were dropped and Helen Street was substituted for concrete surfacing and curb and gutter. A public hearing on the assessment for Helen Street will be held at 7 p.m. May 22.

A police department report indicating a shortage of personnel and unsatisfactory salary schedules was referred to the administrative committee for recommendation.

A request from Fox River Bus Lines to utilize Second Street and Willow Street as part of the bus route in the village was denied. Board members felt it would create a traffic safety problem.

Board approved an offer of Kimberly-Clark Corp. to furnish the village pine trees which will be planted by Boy Scouts in Sunset Point Park.

High School Plans 3 Plays At Hortonville

HORTONVILLE — The High School Drama Club will present three one-act plays in the high school gym at 8 p.m. May 19.

The plays are directed by club members who are assisted by Evelyn Hince, club adviser.

The three plays are all comedies. "Life O' the Party" is directed by Beverly Tiedt and Kay Schlimm and stars Becky Baehman in the lead role. Others in the cast are Dolores Steffen, Diane Johnson, LuAnn Jennerjohn, Rick Pankow, Mary Kreul, Gayle Ratzburg, Laurie Moder, Dennis Tessen, Pete Ullman, Dick Tennie and Jerry Rudloff.

"Mrs. O'Leary's Cow" is directed by Mary Krue and Norene Masche with Jackie Zimmer and Elizabeth Graf in the lead roles. Others in the cast are Bill Jolin, Elaine Masche, Marilyn Masche, Ann Marie Cousineau and Mike Olk. The third play, "A Bachelor's Baby," is directed by Elaine Masche and Jackie Zimmer, and features Bill Bartlett. Others are Pat Prunty, Kathy Simon, Elizabeth Graf and John Graf.

Baton Twirling Pageant Planned

KAUKAUNA — Plans are underway for a "Pageant of Twirling" to be held at 7 p.m. May 16 in the Kaukauna High School auditorium with more than 150 majorettes participating.

Five majorette groups from throughout the Fox Valley area, all instructed by Mrs. David Nagan, will be participating. The program is planned to be of interest to past, present and future baton twirlers as well as adults desiring to know more about twirling art.

Mrs. Nagan will have a group demonstrate a complete year of instructions showing the gradual development and improvement in skill. She will demonstrate class teaching methods and fundamentals of drill, dance and strut construction.

Tips will be given on solo and ensemble routine construction, uniforms and equipment. Twirlers of all ages will be participating, many of whom have won many medals and trophies in competition.

During the course of the evening, all 150 participants will be twirling at one time, utilizing the stage, aisles and other open areas in the auditorium.

Succeeds Gilbert Rhode

Walter Renk Named to UW Board of Regents

MADISON — Walter F. Renk, of Sun Prairie, was today named to the University of Wisconsin board of regents to succeed Gilbert C. Rhode, of Greenwood by Gov. Warren P. Knowles.

Renk, an official of a family farm corporation widely known in Wisconsin agricultural circles, is the brother of Wilbur Renk, former Republican candidate for governor and for U. S. senator.

Renk was named to the seat traditionally held on the regents by an agriculturally-oriented representative. The board of regents is the citizen control board over the UW administration, is an unpaid position, and is regarded as one of the highest honors Wisconsin's governor has to offer.

Wilbur Renk remains active in Republican political circles and earlier this week announced the formation of a statewide Romney for President committee, which will be the official organization of Michigan's governor in the state, when he formally announces his candidacy for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination. "There were many fine individuals under consideration for the post," Knowles said. Renk's selection came after earlier speculation had tabbed at least three other farm leaders as probable selections.

Company Chief Renk is president of William F. Renk and Sons Co. Inc. which produces hybrid seed corn and grain, Grade A milk and markets commercial beef cattle.

He is a graduate of the UW College of Agriculture and received honorary recognition in 1959 from the school for his farm leadership.

He is the past president and director of the Wisconsin Live-

Community Needed To Act as Host for Alice in Dairyland

Have Convention: Need Community!
That's what the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture is saying these days as it searches for a community to be host to the 1968 Alice in Dairyland finals.
D. N. McDowell, department director, says he hopes to announce the 1968 location at the state coronation ceremonies in Green Bay June 10. Meanwhile, however, the search continues. "We think this will be a terrific promotional opportunity for some city," he says. Interested communities are asked to contact the department.

Spanish-American War Ammunition Misfired, Man Granted $130,000

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Curtis Hogenson, 24, has been awarded $130,000 damages for the loss of his right eye caused by the malfunction of 70-year-old Spanish ammunition captured during the Spanish-American War.
He was firing a Spanish .43-caliber rolling block rifle July 17, 1965 when a cartridge exploded.
Hogenson sought $150,000 from Service Armament Co., Inc., of Bergen, N.J., which sold him the ammunition through a mail order from a rifle magazine advertisement.
The Superior Court jury returned its verdict late Monday night.

Reserve Unit Set for Stint At McCoy

Fox Valley members of the 395th Ordnance Company will spend their two-weeks' stint at Camp McCoy which begins Saturday preparing the camp's vehicles for the "invasion" later in the summer of thousands of Wisconsin U. S. Army reservists and National Guardsmen.

The company, which has about 140 members, is one of the first units in the state to leave home for the annual fair weather training. Their duties at the camp will be preparing vehicles that have been in storage over the winter.
Members of the company are from Appleton, Brillion, Dale, Fremont, Green Bay, Greenleaf, Hilbert, New London, Nichols, Oshkosh, Shiocton, Oneida, Seymour, Weyauwega, and Wrightstown. Commanding officer is Lt. Donald Brown of Appleton.
When not attending summer camp, the unit meets Tuesday nights and a Sunday each month for drills. They will leave for

50 Years of Service Recorded In History of Appleton Rotary

"Service above self...he prof. its most who serves best!" That is the philosophy of Rotary International, and it is the philosophy upon which Rotary of Appleton has built 50 years of comradeship and community service.

Rotary in Appleton became 50 years old, March 8, and the golden birthday anniversary party was held Tuesday night at North Shore Golf Club.

Two tentative moves toward establishing Rotary in Appleton were made before March, 1917: In September three years before, George H. Beckley of Travelers Insurance Co. had inquired of Rotary International about establishing a club. In 1916, August H. Meyer of Langstadt Meyer Construction and Supply Co. sent up trial balloons. But it remained for Dr. Victor F. Marshall and Francis S. Bradford to implement the idea shortly before Christmas, 1916.

New impetus, resulting in the first organizational meeting, was provided when Dr. Marshall and Bradford were seat-mates on a train trip to Chicago; a boyhood friend of Dr. Marshall's, visiting from Pittsburgh, had kindled the doctor's interest...and Dr. Marshall was a mover and innovator!

Bradford Chairman
Bradford was designated by the district governor as temporary chairman, and on March 1, 1917, Appleton's first Rotarians got together informally, 14 of them: Bradford, the doctor, Manley J. Sanborn, Albert B. Weissenborn, Joseph Koffend Jr., George Berkey, John Russell, Louis J. Marshall, Bert Ellis, Judson Rosebush, John Hettinger, C. J. Hagen, Henry Russell and George Kull. A week later a permanent organization was formed.

Bradford became the first president, followed by 49 others, culminating with the naming of architect Raymond N. Le Vee this year as the golden anniversary president. Fifty years ago Bradford's officers included Dr. Marshall, vice president; Kull, secretary; P. M. Conkey, treasurer; Roy H. Purdy, sergeant-at-arms; and J. D. Steele, E. H. Brooks, F. J. Harwood, A. F. Tuttle and August Meyers, directors.

Two charter members survive: Purdy and Louis Marshall.

Charter Members
Other charter members were George Beckley, George Giddings, DeForest Hyde, Harry Ingold, Charles Marston, Stephen Murphy, Samuel J. Ryan, Edward Schmalz, O. P. Schlafer, John Stevens, William O. Thiede, Fred Felix Wettengel and William C. Wing. During the next few weeks and months, Karl Schuetter Sr., Walter Storch, Ebenezer H. Harwood, Louis Bonini, James Wood and Thomas Orbison Sr., joined Rotary's ranks.

The pages of Rotary's secretaries' minutes through the years offer a kaleidoscopic view of the club's civic, social and service concerns. On Feb. 9, 1920, a committee was formed to organize a Boy Scout movement; earlier, on May 3, 1917, the club voted for daylight saving time. Later that month they drafted a resolution recommending modern lighting for the city.

Rotary initiated its student loan fund in 1925; original money, representing excess funds from a district conference held in Appleton the year before amounted to $109.50. Over the years through contributions the fund grew until in Dec., 1956, the Appleton Rotary Foundation, Inc., came into being.

Scholarship Grants
Since the inception of the foundation, ten scholarships have been granted to carefully selected and needy students.

Or thopedically handicapped children, enrolled at Morgan School in Appleton, have been the recipients of Rotary concern and assistance since 1941, when William J. Roemer, a Rotarian since 1921, created a trust known as the Helen Thom Roemer fund. Part of the income is used for orthopedic students, including those living within a 50-mile radius of the city.

While the Rotary Club of Appleton traditionally has elected a new president each year, the longevity of other officers in their Rotary service has been marked. For example, since its launching by the late Earl F. Miller, secretary, on June 23, 1923, the club paper, "The Occasional Gusto," has been edited by only six men: Ted Moyle succeeded Miller and put it out from 1928 to 1932; Henry Johnston took over and served till 1944; Chael O. Gochbauer provided the gusto till 1953 and was succeeded by Clarence J. West Jr. Walter F. Storch has been editor since 1956.

Only nine members have club scribes. Others served as secretary, with the George Kull, Joseph Koffend late Mr. Gochbauer, 1939 to Jr., George R. Wettengel, How-1955, the most durable of the ell Thomas, Miller, Moyle, Milton A. Schreiner and Fred A. Semmelhack, the incumbent.

Treasurers numbered a few more. The incumbent, Richard P. Beelen, elected in 1955, was preceded by Conkey, Schuetter, Thiede, Willard S. Ford, Edward N. Smith, Koffend, Marston, Roemer, Storch, Homer Gebhardt and Wilmer Schlafer.

Present officers are LeVee, president; John J. Dixon, vice president; Beelen, treasurer; Semmelhack, secretary. Directors are Glenn H. Arthur,

Untended Grill Cooks Rare 'Side of Garage'

Fire believed to have started earlier in the day when an outdoor grill tipped over, damaged a small portion of a wall, ceiling and door about 6:50 p.m. Monday in a garage at 1139 W. Summer St.

James Vahey, who lives at that address, told Appleton firemen the grill had tipped in the afternoon, and probably spilled some hot coals or sparks into bushel baskets piled nearby. Firemen were at the scene about a half hour.

THE SIDEWALKS ARE OPEN in downtown Appleton!

So who wants to walk in the street anyway? The sidewalks are still here... so come and shop.

THE PENNEY STORY

"One eye on quality; one

By ROBERTA NASH

More often than not, in a store's newspaper advertising, the emphasis is on the price of merchandise, for this is the news that readers want to know.

But the Penney people want to be sure you understand that this emphasis on price in advertising does not represent the thinking within the Penney organization. The thing that makes Penney wheels go round is value, or what you get for that low price.

"We have to keep one eye on quality and the other on price," one of our buyers said to me. "Every sale we make today is designed to bring the customer back tomorrow."
